From Hollywood Script Supervisor to Humble Servant of Christ

By Sandra Cole

My name is Sandra Cole. I was saved by God's grace through faith at Dr. John MacArthur's Grace Community Church in California on Labor Day, September 3, 1984. I grew up in a family with wonderful parents who, like me, had no clue how to parent properly. My father was from New York City and was Russian Orthodox. My mother grew up in Englewood Cliffs, NJ, and was Lutheran. It was my parents' loving, living example that led me to Christ years later by watching their steadfast, faithful walk with their Lord and Savior as born-again believers. Words can be empty, but actions are proof. I left home in 1967 after producer Jack Woltz, who woke up with the horse's head in his bed in the legendary hit movie The Godfather. The exterior of the mansion was filmed in Beverly Hills, but the interior was filmed at an estate on Long Island with stables. As the story goes, John emphatically warned director Francis Ford Coppola, "You better get what you want in this next take, because it's the LAST take I'm doing!" Sometimes, when filming in between takes, we can "tweak" a bit. Apparently, it was long enough for a real horse's head to be put into the bed, adding blood to it, so when John pulled back the sheet, that blood-curdling scream was real! Evidently, Francis was okay

-- and God DID save John physically, albeit for two days -- I thought, "Okay God, now I'm Yours." This, of course, was before I was born again. My parents had been faithfully witnessing to us throughout the years, and John did not like that because he was Jewish. But when he was about to have heart surgery, he did ask my parents, living in NC, if they would please come stay with us and pray. They did. I thought that was wonderful, and John did too. Sadly, when John suddenly fell into a comma for two days, only our heavenly Father knew if John eventually confessed, repenting of his sins and humbly asking Jesus the Messiah to be his Lord and Savior.

"I came to realize I genuinely wasn't saved."

graduating from high school before my parents knew the Lord. When I say I left home, I left without even saying goodbye. I was seventeen at the time. Even before knowing Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior, God kept this foolish child in His gracious grip of grace! I met my late husband, actor John Marley, while filming The Veteran, now called Dead of Night (among other titles), in 1973 during my early career as a motion picture script supervisor, training myself. I wouldn't wish THAT on anyone! Oi! I drove everyone crazy, including myself! Torturous! The Dead of Night's co-star was Lynn Carlin, who played John's wife, and also played John's wife in John Cassavetes' film FACES, for which my late husband won the Venice Film Award. Bob Evans, who ran Paramount at that time, not the restaurateur, offered John the role of Warner Brothers movie mogul and powerful with that last take. It's in the film! On May 22, 1984, John passed from complications of a quadruple bypass. I stayed with John around the clock during the week he was at Cedars-Sinai in Los Angeles. When hearing "code blue," I knew what that meant. John was turning purple and blue. I started praying. Getting down on my knees, pleading with God, "I know I can't make any deals with you, but save my husband, and I'm Yours." I didn't mean to save John spiritually; I meant physically save my husband, and I'm Yours. I was making "a deal" with God. Next thing I knew, John was being taken back to the ICU. Two days later, my husband and Alexis' daddy died. His funeral service was held two days later in New York City. John will forever live on in our hearts. So, having made "a deal with God" thinking I was SAVED by saying, "Save my husband and I'm Yours"

We lived such a lovely, charming life with Alexis while she was growing up. Even though I thought I was saved when making that "prayer deal" with God, I came to realize I genuinely wasn't saved. Shortly before John passed, I was to be Bob Clark's script supervisor on Turk 182, a movie filmed in NYC that John was to work on as well, but when he died, I became Bob's aide-de-camp. Meanwhile, Bob hired Kay Chapin, Woody Allen's script supervisor, typically working on all of Woody's films, to prep and film the production. Getting back to my testimony of when I was FINALLY saved! I like to read, but rarely did for lack of time; however, I chose to bring a paperback of Shirley MacLaine's "Out on a Limb" to NY. While reading, it fascinated me. Shirley talked about Jesus being "this and that," including being a prophet. I thought, "Wow, this is pretty good." So, when

Sandra, little Alexis and late husband John Marley, famous American actor

Shirley tells her story about being astral-ly projected (or OBE, out-of-body experience), I could relate. When I was 17, I lived on a Spanish galleon room on an already "elevated double bed" in writing a travelogue on a cruise ship to Bimini, a band member suggested (at 2 am!), "You should check out Edgar J. Casey's book about his prediction of 'the rise of Atlantis in 1968.'" And it WAS

The Spirit Of Truth:
Whether
it is the Season or Not

By Rev. Madeline Montez Duffany

We are in the hurricane season here in Florida. From June to November, we are aware of the possibility of experiencing one or more of these mighty storms. As we come into the Summer Season, it is a time of great heat and humidity. Spring was a Season of allergies for many, as the pollen accompanied everything growing and blooming. There are other seasons which concern us. Perhaps you are in a Season of grief or depression or indecision in your ministry and your life. It could be a Season wherein God is calling you to a promotion, impressing you through the Holy Spirit of some need that requires your attention. Are you in a Season of reflection, making God your priority, seeking direction? This letter is to encourage you! The best is yet to come if Jesus is the Lord of your life! You can't lose with our Savior! All of His promises are Yes and Amen! Irrespective that it may not seem like the right Time or the right Season, God will always honor faith. All the waiting and praying, the yearning and the tears, have not gone unnoticed by Father God. Don't be impatient, rushing into something before you hear from Him. Seek His face, read His Word, be content. Psalm

27:14. Listen to this account in Luke Chapter 11. A man, tired and hungry on a long journey, stopped at a friend's home. The homeowner had nothing to give to his unexpected guest. So, at midnight he knocked on his neighbor's door, asking for food. The neighbor shouted, "It's not a good time! I'm sleeping, and so are my children. I'm not getting up to help you." But in faith, the man kept knocking and asking. Perhaps like this man we are asking God out of place and out of time. It's not the Time or Season for your request to be fulfilled. Jesus said, "I say to you that though he will not rise and give him what he needs because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity, he will rise and give him as much as he needs." Luke 11:8. Even though out of Time, out of Season, if we persist, He (meaning Christ) will rise and give me as much as I need! Ask, seek, knock, persist. "Ask, and it shall be given unto you; seek and you shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened unto you." Matthew 7:7-8. He says EVERYONE! That includes you and me! FAITH is never out of Season! God always honors FAITH. He has promised, and His Word cannot fail. The door WILL open! Lamentations 3:23-25, Living Bible: Great is His faithfulness; His loving-kindness begins afresh each day. My soul claims the Lord as my inheritance; therefore I will hope in Him. The Lord is wonderfully good to those who wait for Him, to those who seek for Him. This is God's Truth

Forgiveness, A valuable lesson

| By Ken Carpenter |
| elderkc134@gmail.com |

Years ago, I was moving my place of business to a smaller building to reduce my rent from $850 to $500 a month. Before

I could move in, I had to remodel the new office. I was on a close timetable, so I hired a Christian friend to trim the new office. He kept telling me he would come the next day but never showed up; my time was running out. I was going to have to pay rent on two places because of this man. One Saturday morning I stopped at his house and asked, "Are you coming or not?" He said, "I will be there by Noon!" So I went to work on the office doing some wiring. Noon came, no show, one o'clock, two o'clock, still no show. I got really angry. A thought came to me, "All you have done for him, and look what he is doing to you and has lied to you too!" "My flesh wanted to hear these words, so I received them and agreed with the devil. The next morning, as I woke up, an urge came over me to run. My peace was gone, and worry was filling my mind. All at once I realized the devil was moving into my life because I had agreed with him. Jesus said in Mark 11:26, "If much work done that I started to think maybe I would not have to do what I told The Lord I would do. About four o'clock, my friend asked, "Will you pray for me? I have been sick all day." Before I could think out of my mouth, I blurted, "It won't do any good!" Then I said, Brother, I have judged you. Will you forgive me? And He said, Ken, I haven't done right either. Will you forgive me? So, we prayed, and the spirit of God filled the place, and he was healed. That day, I learned a valuable lesson: I couldn't afford bitterness! Is there someone you need to forgive?

... tled, I started to quietly concentrate, beginning to "feel my ankles get lighter" when suddenly the phone rang, instantly snapping me back to reality! But!! Because of my past Miami experience in 1968, I believed Shirley's OBE experience when reading about it in my small, "sight-unseen" Greenwich Village, NY, apartment on 7 Jane Street in 1984! As my adorable, precocious 8-year-old daughter, Alexis, announced upon arriving, even before stepping her tiny shoe inside, she unabashedly announced, a 'la Betty Davis, "What a DUMP!! I'm leaving!!" And she did. Alexis never lay her little head on one of those pillows in that cramped bedroom. Her German godmother whisked her goddaughter away to her Westchester County estate, Briarcliff Manor, that I amusingly and affectionately called "JUMP-IN' JUNIPER LEDGE LODGE!" due to all of the parties and giddy, witty gatherings hosted by Marianne Marks, proprietress, welcoming friends and new-found acquaintances from around the world to hang their hats for as long as they wished while visiting the City, 45 minutes by car; and essentially, 45 minutes by the Chappaqua train. The Scarborough train takes the same approximate amount of time. Both a delightful commute. CUT TO: 1984, my first "Fundamentals of Faith" class at Grace Community Church in Panorama City, CA, fifteen minutes from our Studio City home. In 1984, GCC had approximately 64 on-campus pastors. Our class pastor began to recite the various names of the devil. When he got to "the prince of the air" (Ephesians 2:2), I BOLTED UPRIGHT, excitedly exclaiming, "THAT'S who it was!! The DEVIL astrally projected Shirley MacLaine, NOT JESUS!!!!" Well!! All of the newly born-again believers looked at me like I WAS the devil incarnate!

– especially after I had just responded to the pastor's opening question at the beginning of class, "Can anyone please tell me where the Book of Amos is in the Bible?" Flailing my hand high in the air, I immediately responded, "Next to Andy!!" Two weeks before Bob Clark's film, Turk 182, wrapped at the beginning of September, I flew Alexis back to California, where my folks were taking care of our Studio City home. Through the summer, they were

9/4/84." When we got back to our pew, I asked my mother if I could please borrow $20.00 since I didn't bring any money. When my Mom heard the reason, she couldn't DIG fast enough! The next morning, September 3, 1984 – Labor Day – my dad dropped me off at Grace Community Church, $20.00 in hand, to enroll in the "Walk Thru the OT/NT Seminar." Several Logos students from Master's Seminary were in attendance. The teaching began in the OT, but prior to had simply and selfishly said, "Hey, God! Here I am! (But NOT as Moses obediently said to God when called!). Rather, with impudence, I arrogantly said to God, "If you need me to do anything for you, just let me know! And YOU can do me a favor, God, by saving my husband!" (Physically!). Suddenly, I could feel a stirring in my spirit. Brokenness. A deep sense of sorrow not felt before. Even when losing John. I said to my new friend, "Can we please hold gotten Son who willingly GAVE His life a ransom for mine [many] (Matthew 20:28) allowing Himself to be mercilessly mocked, scourged and beaten unrecognizably as graphically described in Isaiah 53:1-5, pouring out His blood for the remission of my sins – FOR EVER AND EVER! Thank You, Jesus! Amen! Hallelujah! And, Selah! Colossians 1:16-17. After being without a husband for a few years, the Lord richly blessed me with a wonderful husband of 30-plus years, Stan, my beautiful man! Stan Cole and I met in 1973 on a Bob Clark cult classic, Black Christmas, filmed in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, starring Olivia Hussey, Keir Dullea, Margot Kidder, and John Saxon. We remained friends throughout the years as we worked on several other Bob Clark films together. Stan was nominated as Best Editor for Black Christmas. Ten years later, in 1983, I was to work on Bob Clark's classic movie, A Christmas Story, starring award-winning actor Darren McGavin, Melinda Dillon, and Peter Billingsley. However, the day I was to fly to Toronto to start pre-production, I called Bob, apologizing that I was bowing out to have more time with my attending Pastor Dr. John MacArthur's Grace Community Church. Alexis JOYfully went with them on Sundays and Wednesdays until my soon return. She was sooooo excited to take her mama to church the day after I arrived home on Saturday, September 2, 1984! Before the church service started, she grabbed my hand, racing me over to the Book Shack as speedily as her little feet could fly! To my daughter's disappointment, it was CLOSED but would be open after the service. I read a big poster in the window, "Open Bible Walk Thru the OT & NT Seminar 9/3/84 & that, I heard someone saying, "In order to be saved, one must first 'confess and repent,'" which I had not done when "making my deal with God" the day John was being wheeled back to the ICU on May 20, 1984. This bothered me, so during our lunch break at Coco's with a sweet soon-to-be-sister-in-law, Christ, I let her know before our meal was served, "You know, I've never confessed to God, nor repented from my sins, so I don't think I'm saved." I also had not previously acknowledged that I was a sinner in need of a Savior. Rather, it was as if I hands? I need to ask God for His forgiveness and ask Jesus to be my Lord and Savior." We held hands, and with my head humbly bowed, I wept while confessing and repenting from my sins before God's peaceful throne of grace while the busyness of lunchtime chatter and clatter faded away. Then, through the tears, JOY filled my spirit and heart, thanking my God and personal Lord and Savior that selfish Sandy was GONE, welcoming JESUS into my soul, having accepted God's free gift of salvation (Ephesians 2:8-9) that came at such a GREAT COST to His Only-be-

Have you ever tried to get somewhere on time, but things kept holding you up? Last fall, after trying to get out to my mother-in-law's house since early morning, I had finally arrived. It was now after lunch. I was to finish cleaning out the house in preparation for putting it up for sale. Knowing the home was to become a remodel, I knew that the 8-foot wooden closet rod from the bedroom would be replaced with something modern. For that reason, I had loaded it into my car to bring home.

My goal was to arrive back home before dark. However, it was now after dinner time as I finished loading the car. By the time I got halfway home, it was dark.

As I drove through town, all of a sudden, I heard car horns beeping. Cars began swerving on both sides of the highway. Suddenly, I saw a woman run out in front of heavy traffic across the three westbound lanes, then quickly cross the median and, without stopping, dashed across the three eastbound lanes which I was in. Behind her was her dog on a leash.

The car in front of me almost hit her. We all slammed on our brakes. People blew their horns as they passed her. As the lady reached the sidewalk to my right, I could see that she and her dog were being chased by a large German Shepherd. It appeared to be attacking them. It became clear that this was an emergency. This lady had tried so desperately to escape from the stray dog, she actually risked her life running out into the highway in front of our cars in a desperate attempt to get away from him.

As she tried to run down the sidewalk, she had to stop. I could see her legs had now become wrapped in her dog's leash. She began spinning in circles, trying to untangle the leash while kicking at the dog. This was truly a desperate situation, and I could see that there was no one who would stop to help her. Without hesitating, I knew what I must do. Immediately, I pulled my car off the highway into the grass and got out. By using my headlights, I could see her. She repeatedly kicked at the dog as he continued to jump on her. I paused for a brief moment assessing the situation. As I got out, I looked at the scene over the hood of my car. Knowing I could retreat back in gave me courage. My car would be my shield if I needed, but I could see that this poor woman had nothing. I determined in my heart I would help this lady get away from that dog. As she spun in circles, attempting to get untangled from her dog's leash, the Shepherd continued to lunge at her. It truly was a frightening situation. I have always been afraid of German Shepherds, but I knew that God had put me in this ladies' path for a purpose and I understood how I was to help. I also knew that because He had placed me there as a divine appointment for this lady, He would protect me.

Reaching for that 8-foot-long wooden closet rod, I pulled it out of my car and approached the scene. "Get off her!" I yelled as I swung the wooden pole. My headlights pointed directly at them so I could see. The lady looked up at me with complete surprise! By her startled look, I didn't know if this poor lady was just as afraid of me as she was of that dog.

As I approached, I held up the pole and yelled and then swung it. "Get away, dog!" I repeatedly beat the pole on the sidewalk in front of his muzzle. "No! You go home. Go!" I yelled, swinging the rod repeatedly. The dog was persistent. He lunged at the lady again as she tried to push him away. "No! Get!" I continued yelling while swinging the pole at him. Nothing I did seemed to faze him. He would not retreat.

Then something happened. The dog turned his attention upon me. Growling, with his head hung low, he slowly walked towards me as if stalking me. I swung the pole again but to no avail. This dog was determined. Again, I banged the pole on the ground. "No!" I yelled again. This gave the lady and her dog a chance to run and get away.

What am I going to do if this dog starts to bite me? I asked myself. Well, I knew my car door was open, and hopefully, I could retreat back to the safety of the car. I decided to do something different. I made myself look as big as possible. I raised the pole up horizontally over my head and yelled, "No!" As I took steps towards him, I banged the pole in front of his muzzle. The dog froze. To my surprise, the dog backed away and began retreating. That gave me more courage. I followed him a few yards, yelling and pointing until his walk became a slow run. "You go home. Go!" I continued. Occasionally he looked back at me with his head held low. This intervention had given the lady and her dog time to escape. I needed to check on the lady. I had no idea if she or her dog had been injured. I got back in my car to catch up with them. Once again, I pulled my car off the road, rolling slowly into the grass. I called out to her. "Are you o.k. Ma'am?" "Did either of you get bitten?" She hurried over to my car and leaned into the window. "No, We're o.k." She replied. "Thank you so much. I was so scared." She reached her hand across into my car. I took her hand and held it. I could feel she was shaking. "Where did you come from?" she asked. "You must be an angel." "I think God sent me to you tonight," I explained. "You know, some people believe people can become angels, but the bible says that's not true. I'm just a regular person. But I have a deep relationship with God. I believe God sent me here to you tonight. You see, I was trying to get home hours ago. I didn't understand why things kept getting in my way to make me so late, but now I do.

You see, sometimes God will hold up your plans so that He can put you in the right place at the right time so you can be a help to someone in need. Today, that turned out to be you. I believe He sent me here so I could help you. Tonight, you were being attacked by a strange dog. Many people saw you. Many people drove right on by, but no one was willing to help. God knows I am willing to be used by Him and He sometimes puts me in people's path when they need help. I don't look for it. It just happens. Then I asked her, "What do you think the chances are that while all those cars passed you by that someone would care enough to help? What do you think the chances are that the person helping you would just happen to come along..."

You have been made a kingdom (a royal race) and priests to our God, and you shall reign as kings over the earth by the Great High Priest Himself, JESUS CHRIST. You have been given authority over all the workings of darkness so that nothing shall by any means hurt you. Not sickness, not disease, not poverty, not emotional problems, not relational situations, not the workings of Jezebel, not the workings of Leviathan or the Python spirit. None of it can harm you if you stand on His Word cause GREATER IS HE IN YOU THAN HE WHO LIVES IN THE WORLD. YOU HAVE OVERCOME BY THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB AND THE WORD OF YOUR TESTIMONY. DECLARE HIS WORD OVER YOUR LIFE TODAY. The enemy will have to flee... at the sound of the Mighty Name of Jesus Christ. No matter what you are going through today, you can stand on the Solid Rock as the Word says.

Pray this with me today: I am filled with the knowledge of the Lord's will (in every situation, in every circumstance, in whatever direction I may need) in all spiritual wisdom (that is, I am filled with the wisdom of the God-head) I am filled with the compressive insight into the ways, thoughts, and purposes of You God (that is, I have the Rhema Word, the Life-giving Word for all that I'm going through today.) I have understanding and discernment of Spiritual things. I have the mind of Christ. I have His wisdom flowing through me. I hold the thoughts, feelings, and purposes of Almighty God! The weapons of my warfare are Mighty thorough God to the pulling down of strongholds, to the Glory of God. I am strong in the Lord and in the Power of His Might! When you are walking into your next level, the enemy does not lay out the red carpet for you. But greater is He in you than he who lives in the world.

The weapons of your warfare, oh Mighty Warrior, are not carnal, but Mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. We overcome by the Blood of the Lamb and the Word of our testimony. In Num. 13:30, Caleb stilled the people before Moses and said, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to take the land" You are a child of the King, Let no man, no demon, and no lie steal your Joy, your peace, your crown... He who has called you is faithful and will see you through. For the Sons of God are led by the Spirit of God, who has equipped you and trained you for such a time as this. Be strong in the Lord (not your own strength) but in the power and strength of the Lord. Be EMPOWERED through your union (your relationship, your communion, and your oneness) with Him.

Receive His strength (which lives in your inner man, by His Holy Spirit who lives within you). That strength which His boundless might provide. Put on God's whole armor, (and with it, you will successfully stand up against ALL the strategies and deceits of the devil. (for you are not dealing with people) but the powers of darkness. So, with God's complete armor on, you will be able to RESIST and STAND. RESIST AND STAND. Stand holding your ground. Tightening up around you the Word of God, placing on your feet the Gospel of Peace, God's Peace...Lifting up the shield of faith, taking up and standing in your Salvation... (your saving faith and testimony in Jesus). Letting the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, come out of your inner man as a two-edged Sword, alive, active, and sharp. And at all times, everywhere, pray in the Spirit, for the Holy Spirit within you knows what to pray and how to bring it forth to accomplish His will, and He knows the heart and mind of the Father.

PRAYER FOR THE DAY TO PRAY OUT LOUD:
DEAR ABBA FATHER...I SUBMIT TO YOU THIS DAY MY BODY, SOUL, MIND, AND SPIRIT TO BE USED FOR YOUR GLORY! BY THE POWER INVESTED IN ME BY YOUR HOLY SPIRIT, I TAKE AUTHORITY OVER THE POWERS AND PRINCIPALITIES ABOVE MY AIR SPACE AND COMMAND EVERY DEMONIC SPIRIT HOVERING OVER ME TO BE GONE NOW IN YESHUA'S NAME! DEVIL, I BIND YOUR POWERS ACCORDING TO MATHEW 18:18! I BIND YOUR DEMONS AND FORBID THEM TO PLAY HAVOC IN MY LIFE THIS DAY!! I MAKE YOUR DEMONS...DEAF, DUMB, AND BLIND!! I CAUSE CONFUSION IN YOUR CAMP, SO GET OUT OF MY WAY. I'M COMING THROUGH! FOR GREATER IS HE THAT IS IN ME THAN HE THAT IS IN THE WORLD FOR JESUS/ YESHUA IS LORD OVERALL!

The doctor said I would not walk, but through Faith in God, I Walk!

By Marta Mercado

Faith is believing in God. For many years, the doctors told me I would never walk by myself. I believed them, and I would never go upstairs, but now, with my Faith, I am going up and down stairs and walking by myself because I have faith in God! Hallelujah, Faith is believing in God. It is a miracle, and I want everyone to know that God is real and that if you have Faith, you have everything. Nothing is impossible with our God!

LOOK UP Romans 8:38 I am persuaded {Convinced} that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing shall be able to separate us from the Love of God which we have in Christ Jesus our Lord. Our God rides on the wings of the wind. He knows our sitting down and our rising up. Psalm 27:1 The Lord is the Light of my Salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the Strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid? He is the Strength of my life, and in the time of trouble, He surrounds me with songs of Deliverance. He leads me in the way that I should go and guides me with His eye. The Lord of the hills is acquainted with all our ways. He is mindful of us and remembers we are but dust. The Lord of the hills, He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. He's God's Son___ He's a sinner's Savior___ He's awesome and unique. Launched: New Documentary on Border Crisis -- 'Weapons of Mass Migration'

By The Epoch Times | www.theepochtimes.com
| EpochTV.com | MassMigrationFilm.com

A new investigative documentary exposes what's behind the border crisis and why is it being carried out
Go deep into the Panama jungle into the migrant camps in the Darien Gap, and get ready for never-before-seen footage.
The film premiered on May 9 on EpochTV exclusively

WASHINGTON, May 10, 2024 /Standard Newswire/ -- Over 7.2 million illegal immigrants have entered the United States over the past 3 years. This record border crisis is not organic, behind it are official policies, heavy financing, and agreements between the U.S. government and the United Nations. The world is watching different pieces of this unfold, with video of groups of illegal immigrants crossing into the United States, not trying to evade border patrol, but rather waiting to be arrested. What is being left out of the discussion is: Why? In this new and ground-breaking Epoch Original Documentary "Weapons of Mass Migration," directed and hosted by Joshua Philipp, senior investigative reporter and host of EpochTV's "Crossroads," he sets out to investigate what is really taking place behind the border crisis and why is it being carried out. The investigative journey takes him deep into the jungles of Panama, into the migrant camps in the mouth of the infamous Darien Gap, which is known as one of the most dangerous places in the world, through United Nations facilities, and alongside the programs being used to process and facilitate mass migration at the U.S.-Mexico border. Film director and host Joshua Philipp said, "My team and I set out to Panama to investigate the origins of this crisis and uncover the key players behind it, and our investigation uncovered that the border crisis is manufactured and highly organized." He continued: "The United Nations is playing a heavy hand in running the border crisis. NGOs are being used as the boots on the ground to carry out many of these programs. In reality, this is all happening because our elected leaders agreed to it, it's being facilitated. Despite the incredible scale of it all, voters are being kept in the dark. The American people and all others in the world watching this, they deserve to know why." In Joshua's on-the-ground reporting, he talked to illegal immigrants who crossed the Darien Gap, got up close to the to the border agents as they processed illegal immigrants entering the United States, filmed exclusive footage from both the San Vicente migrant camp (which was burnt down about 2 weeks after the filming) and also from the border where U.N. handlers & a network of NGOs help migrants along the trail to America. In the documentary, Joshua talked to border crisis experts like war correspondent Michael Yon, Center for Immigration Studies fellow Todd Bensman, National Border Patrol Council Union spokesman Manny Bayon, former Director General of Senafront & Security and Defense consultant to Panamanian President Oriel Ortega, and more. As the border crisis gets worse by the day, it is not just impacting local communities and towns near the border, but also communities far away. Immigration is the top issue that Americans are concerned about [1]. This documentary is part of the "America at a Crossroads with Joshua Philipp" investigative docu-series into the most important issues of the 2024 election. This film is now available to subscribers on EpochTV.com. Joshua Philipp, film director and host, is a senior investigative reporter for The Epoch Times and host of EpochTV's "Crossroads." Could this be Why They are encouraging Illegal Immigrants to cross our Borders

By Pastor Chuck Kennedy | www.ficcwordchurch.org
www.God-is-Real.com | www.HesAliveNews.org

The daily influx of thousands of illegal immigrants crossing our borders raises many questions. Why is this allowed, and even encouraged, by the current administration? After much consideration, I want to share my thoughts on this matter, and you can decide for yourself what you believe to be the reason.

Initially, I thought it might be to increase votes for Democrats. However, non-citizens, including undocumented immigrants, can only vote in a few places in America, and those are strictly local elections, not federal ones. As bizarre as I find it that illegals and non-citizens would be welcome to vote in any election, it seems to be gaining ground as more communities consider rewriting their laws to allow it. This still does not seem to be the primary reason for their encouraged entry, as this line of thinking would take too long. There must be a quicker reason for their encouraged acceptance into our great country. A more pressing concern might be national security. Allowing unvetted individuals, potentially including terrorists, to cross our borders is inherently dangerous. Could this be a strategy to undermine the country from within, leading to a catastrophic event similar to 9/11? While this is a possibility, I don't believe it is the primary motivation of our rogue misguided government. Consider the Democratic Party's past attempts to eliminate the Electoral College. Our forefathers instituted the Electoral College to ensure a balanced vote in U.S. presidential elections. Although some advocate for this change, it would require a lengthy and challenging constitutional amendment process, which seems unlikely to succeed against the will of the majority of Americans. However, what if there were another way to influence electoral outcomes without changing the laws and the structure of elections? The decennial Census conducted every ten years includes all residents, regardless of their immigration status. This count directly affects the number of electoral votes each state receives. Could this be the plan? In July 2020, President Donald Trump issued a memorandum to exclude undocumented immigrants from the Census apportionment base. The goal was to ensure only legal residents were counted for congressional representation. On January 20, 2021, President Joe Biden reversed this policy, directing the Census Bureau to include all residents in the apportionment counts. Consequently, the 2020 Census included undocumented immigrants in the counts used to allocate seats in the House of Representatives and distribute federal funds. In this Census, both illegal immigrants and non-citizens are counted. This way, the number of people in a state directly impacts the number of electoral votes that the state receives in U.S.

I struggled to understand why the government would provide hotel rooms, loaded debit cards, and other resources to illegal immigrants.

presidential elections. This means that relocating more undocumented immigrants to areas needing more liberal Representatives could increase those areas' electoral votes. Legally, boosting population counts in specific states enhances the likelihood of a liberal victory. I struggled to understand why the government would provide hotel rooms, loaded debit cards, and other resources to illegal immigrants. Then, I realized the connection between the Electoral College and the House of Representatives. This strategy appears to be part of a broader plan, referred to as the Great Reset of 2030, aiming to reshape our freedoms and societal structure. Please understand the severity of this plan to Reset your freedoms and everything you have always been accustomed to enjoying in this great free country. It is legally and in a lawful well underway in more ways than immigration. I am happily married to a beautiful Filipino Green Card holder. I support climate control, Central Bank Digital Currencies, 15-minute cities, bioengineered foods, and genetically modified medicines are all intimately entwined in this bringing down of our current way of life to force a controlled lifestyle on an unsuspecting society. Some might argue that this is merely a humanitarian effort to help those seeking a better life. With over twenty years of experience as a pastor and missionary to many countries of the world, I have a deep love for people and a desire to help. However, I lock my doors at night to keep my family safe, I believe in legal and lawful immigration. I love people. I welcome all people from around the world with one stipulation, they must come in a lawful way. As members of the Church of the Living God, let's pray for our government to prioritize the people's interests over their agendas. Pray that those seeking a better life will do so legally and become productive citizens. May God not only bless America, but Americans must get back to blessing the world, I have a deep love for people and a desire to help. However, I lock my doors at night to keep my family safe, I believe in legal and lawful immigration. I love people. I welcome all people from around the world with one stipulation, they must come in a lawful way.

Saved From a Dog Attack

From Page 4 ...and be right here just at just the right moment? And what do you think the chances are that the person who pulled over to help you would have an 8-foot wooden closet rod in their car to use to fight? Only God can arrange something like this, and that's what He did for you tonight. You need to know that's how much God loves you. He sees you and He Loves you, and has a wonderful plan for your life. Did you know that?" I asked her. "Yes, I do. I'm a Christian", she said. "And you have a personal relationship with Jesus?" I asked her. "Yes, I do," she replied, nodding. "Ok, good," I said. "I'm glad I was put here to help you tonight. Now go home and tell your family and your friends what God has done here for you tonight. O.K.?" "Yes, I'll do it," she promised. Before she left, I prayed for safety & blessings over her. She squeezed my hand one more time, thanked me again, and hurried on her way. The following day, I realized I never got her name. I felt great disappointment over that. I felt such love for her, and now I'll never know her name. I still think of her and wish we had exchanged phone numbers. She probably would have become a dear friend. But I know we will always remember each other and that night and how God sent me to her. He placed me there at just the right place and just the right time. What an awesome God we serve!

Video: Shots Heard During Live Stream News Conference Promoting Two Genders Campaign

By Public Advocate | www.publicadvocateusa.org

WASHINGTON, May 15, 2024 /Christian News-wire/ -- Summary: Shots were fired near Public Advocate's CEO and staff during a live stream video announcement of a billboard campaign opposing transgender surgery on children and promoting the reality of just two genders. The large billboard on Route 522 South, 3 miles south of Interstate 81, east side of the road, has the words painted on it: "Scientific Fact," with two pelvis skeletons pictured, "male 90 degrees, female, 120 degrees." The sign portrays the structural difference between a male and female pelvis. Details: Eugene Delgaudio president of Public Advocate said today: "During a live video stream of Public Advocate's announcement of a billboard campaign to promote two genders, four or five shots were fired, seemingly directed at us and four other volunteers holding banners next to the billboard Public Advocate paid for near Winchester, Virginia. "Three Frederick County Sheriff's Deputy cars responded, and I have filed a report about the shots being fired. There were no injuries. I did not think there was a threat, but it seemed to strangely coincide with our event," Delgaudio said. "My reaction to the gunshots being fired during our news conference. The shooting seemed to be in reaction to being at the '2 Gender's Billboard' and our defense of Chole Cole and her request that we do not affirm transgender demands, that we stand firmly for 2 genders. I was clearly discussing this with a bull horn during the shots being fired, and our cameras recorded this in our social media broadcast. "I felt determined not to allow several shots being fired near our billboard to slow me down or stop our event. Following our event, the police responded, and I made a report of this incident. I am grateful for law enforcement's quick response. "This video and billboard campaign is a tribute to the victims of transgender violence, a shout out to the victims of terrible transgender surgery like Chloe Cole, and support for Riley Gaines in her fight to end bullying and violence in women's sports by transgenders," concluded Delgaudio. Public Advocate has a plan to rent more billboards in the Washington D.C. area during May and Pride month using standard billboards, yard signs, and electronic mobile billboards. Other billboard text in advertising announced today: "TRANS WOMEN ARE (REAL WOMEN CROSSED OUT) INSANE MEN." And "Children are Never Born the Wrong Gender. God doesn't make mistakes." LIFE AND DEATH ARE IN THE POWER OF THE TONGUE - PROVERBS 18:21

WHERE ARE YOU GOING WHEN YOU DIE? HEAVEN OR HELL?

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO, IS SIMPLY:

- Admit that you are a sinner. Romans 3:23 "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God."
- REPENT AND ASK HIM TO FORGIVE YOUR SINS
Romans 5:8 "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

confess now that Jesus is Lord of your life. Romans 10:9-10 "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."
