A Generation Made Ready: Supernatural Stories from The Front

Miracles, Deliverance, and Destiny in Action Across Southwest Florida

In an age when headlines are filled with confusion and compromise, a radiant light shines out of Manatee, Sarasota, and Charlotte counties—marked not by celebrity preachers or fancy stages, but by fire-born worship, heartfelt outreach, and the unmistakable touch of the supernatural. At the heart of it all are John and Michelle Skorski, founders of a ministry known as The Front—a para-church ministry with one mission: "To ignite, equip, and launch a generation into their God-given destiny." And after 40 years of grassroots, Spirit-led ministry, the fruit of their labor is undeniable.

Beginnings: From Rock Radio to Revival

Michelle's journey began behind a secular rock radio station mic, where she served as music director. But in 1986, God interrupted her career with a divine calling. "He gripped my heart," she recalls. "I couldn't stay in that environment anymore." She left for The JOY FM, where she still serves on-air six days a week. Around the same time, John went full-time with Youth for Christ, and their shared passion for young, unchurched people exploded. "God gave us a heart for kids who weren't in church yet—but He was clearly calling them," Michelle explains. After pastoring youth at several churches, including a youth revival at Church of the Cross and Christian Retreat, they launched Wholehearted Youth Outreach in 1994. God really spoke to us through a prophetic word in 1993 during Michelle's pregnancy with their son Caleb that changed everything: "Just as you're pregnant in the natural, you're pregnant in the spirit. God is going to birth a ministry, and it will be a pioneering ministry." They've been pioneering ever since.

Ladies enjoying a women's getaway with The Front

Miraculous Provision and Divine Timing

"Back then," John recalls, "we had nothing but open doors—and a word from the Lord." There was no salary. Yet diapers would show up at their front door just when they were needed. Vans, buses, sound equipment, and chairs would appear out of nowhere. Provision followed obedience. One bold step came in 1994 when they signed the lease for the warehouse space by Cophers Junk Yard.

"It was hot and un-air-conditioned, but God met us there," they recall. Youth would arrive early just to sit in front of a fan during worship. For six years, miracles unfolded in that industrial space—until the fire marshal said no more.

Soon after, a friend connected them with the owner of a small shopping center. The rent was $1,700 a month—unthinkable at the time. Then, 20 supporters stepped in at $100 a month, and in 2003, on the National Day of Prayer, The Front Bradenton was born.

"We didn't advertise. We didn't beg. But God sent everything we needed," Michelle shares.

Worship, Unity, and the One Church

The Front has never been about Sunday morning programming. Instead, it holds Monday night gatherings in Bradenton and Thursday nights in Port Charlotte, giving people room to stay connected or get plugged into local churches.

Unity is the heartbeat of the ministry. "We're not trying to build a big church—we want to serve the one Church Jesus is building," John says. Across their ministry, worshipers from 48 different churches have been represented, reflecting a powerful spirit of unity and regional impact.

Their worship isn't three songs and a sermon—it's a breakthrough experience. "Sometimes we worship for an hour and a half," Michelle says. "Even with only a few in the room, we want to honor Jesus. This is a worship war room."

EARNEST EXPECTATIONS

By Rev. Madeline Montez Duffany

Romans 8:19. ‘For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God.’ This Scripture comes to mind often because I am so aware of creation and all the people and animals here on earth. The whole of creation, both animate (refers to that which has conscious life, such as human beings and animals) and inanimate (that which does not have conscious life) waits in suspense for the coming resurrection – the glorification of the saints’ All of creation is subject to the curse put upon it because of man’s sin, and it waits for the manifestation (Greek is ‘apokalupsis and means “an uncovering; a laying bare”, so that it may also be delivered from the curse under it now exists. This manifestation will come in two parts. At the moment of the resurrection (1 Thess.4:16-17) all the saints who ever lived will be glorified. He will take true believing Christians out of the way so that he can clean up the earth, then we will come back with Him. We will escape the coming trials. Jesus will not restore the earth at this particular time – total manifestation will not be brought about. Remember Jesus’ words about the wheat and the tares growing up together. The second part of the restoration awaits until later, when Israel will be brought back to God, occurring at the second coming. Zech. Chaps. 13-14. Man was given dominion over all of God’s creation (Psalm 8) before the Fall which brought about the curse. Adam brought on the curse, but Jesus delivered us by giving His life at Calvary. Soon the curse in its totality will be lifted when Jesus returns, and Christ will rule and reign supreme on earth in person. Do you understand this? There is a false teaching concerning the phrase “manifestation of the sons of God”. This has been around for quite some time. You must be careful what you Watch on TV and YouTube. It teaches that this manifestation is already taking place, however this is an error which refers to the so-called ‘Kingdom Now’ movement. This false teaching claims there will be no rapture and that this manifestation will be ushered in by political means with Christians being elected to public office. No! This manifestation of which Paul speaks will be carried out at the resurrection of the just and then the second coming of the Lord. Daniel 2:34-35. We can spend futile days of our lives trying to change the world, save the animals from slaughter, rescue elephants from captivity, save turtles and whales, etc. What about saving the human babies that are being killed at the whim of parents? What about the ozone layer being decimated by gases from cows? Stupid, I say! My Mom used to say, “You care more about animals than people.” Yes, I care about them. I love our little dog, and I love all animals and nature. I also care deeply about human beings. Because of our Native American heritage, we were taught to highly respect all creation. My Mom taught us that there is no such thing as a weed. She saw beauty in everything. My Dad told me, “Madeline, even a bug wants to live.” Environments and activists attempt to change the very nature of the world by laws or restrictions placed on humanity. Example: no oil or gas drilling to produce what God has given to the human race. These restrictions are actually political control of populations hidden behind supposedly true environmental necessities and concerns. It’s good to desire to be careful in our use of God’s creation. But man is always attempting in some way – many ways now – to control and dominate people and creation selfishly. They leave God out of the big picture and cannot see the whole of God’s design and gifts for humanity. As Christians, we are to be aware of, totally in agreement with, and act on what we are here for: preaching the Gospel to an unsaved, doomed... Continued on Page: 9

HOW TO BE EFFECTIVE IN GOD’S ARMY

Do You Know Jesus???

Do You Really Know Jesus?

God so loved the world that He sent His only begotten Son, so that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have Eternal Life. God SO LOVED YOU! So, you shall not perish but have eternal life. You are loved by ALMIGHTY GOD who knew you, who loved you, before you were even born, and has a plan for your life. YOU ARE NOT AN ACCIDENT! He wants to be your Papa God. Like He said to me once, many years ago, "Don't just call me God anymore, now call me Papa, because I AM your Papa now!"

He knows what you have gone through and why. He knows what you are going through now, and why, the thoughts and intents and purposes of your heart, even before you know them. He knew you before you were even born, the Word says, and He formed you in your mother's womb. He had a plan for your life before you even took your first breath. He knows you, loves you, and is willing to forgive you anyway, for all your wrong decisions and all the mistakes you made in life. All you need to do is believe, ask, and receive His abundant mercy in your heart and in your life.

Now it's not about going through a set of religious formulas but about surrendering your heart and your life to Him, to be your LORD and SAVIOUR. It's not about repeating a script after someone. Just repeating words, if you're not serious in your heart, may make it a seed, but not a real Salvation experience. We have to follow the Word of God, and not someone's opinion. Romans 10 v 9 and 10 (amp version) 9-/because if you acknowledge and confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord AND, IN YOUR HEART, BELIEVE (ADHERE TO, TRUST IN, AND RELY ON THE TRUTH) that GOD raises Him from the dead, you will be saved.

(VERSE 10 IS THE KEY AND IS IMPORTANT) FOR WITH THE HEART A PERSON BELIEVES (ADHERES TO, TRUSTS IN, AND RELIES ON Christ and so is justified (declared righteous, acceptable to God) and with the mouth he confesses (DECLARES OPENLY AND SPEAKS OUT FREELY HIS FAITH (AND CONFIRMS HIS SALVATION.

(Note here the HEARTS ATTITUDE IS FIRST AND FORMOST! JESUS IS NOT LOOKING FOR YOU TO FULFILL A FORMULA,

BUT TO SURRENDER A BEAUTIFUL RELATIONSHIP WITH HIM, AS A FATHER TO A CHILD, AND A BRIDE TO HER BRIDEGROOM. And say with your HEART. "YES, JESUS, I'M READY TO SURRENDER MY LIFE TO YOU AND START THIS BEAUTIFUL JOURNEY WITH YOU AND STEP BY STEP DO THE WORK WITHIN ME THAT NEEDS TO BE DONE!

Now, will you walk perfectly with Him right away? Most likely not!!! But the journey now has begun, and as you surrender to the fullness of the Holy Spirit in your life, you now have a HELPER, a STRENGTHENER, an ADVOCATE, an INTERCESSOR, the SPIRIT OF TRUTH, that will lead you into all TRUTH, which will always LINE UP WITH THE WORD OF GOD! 1 John 1:7 and 9 now applies to you- but if we (REALLY) ARE LIVING AND WALKING IN THE LIGHT, WE HAVE TRUE UNBROKEN FELLOWSHIP WITH ONE ANOTHER, AND THE BLOOD OF JESUS CHRIST HIS SON, CLEANSSES (REMOVES) US FROM ALL SIN IN ALL ITS FORMS AND MANIFESTATIONS.

V9- IF WE FREELY ADMIT THAT WE HAVE SINNED AND CONFESS OUR SINS, HE IS FAITHFUL

AND JUST (TRUE TO HIS OWN NATURE AND PROMISES) AND WILL FORGIVE US OUR SINS AND (CONTINUOUSLY) CLEANSSES US FROM ALL UNRIGHTOUSNESS (EVERYTHING NOT IN CONFORMITY TO HIS WILL IN PURPOSE, THOUGHT AND ACTION.

My friend. HE WANTS A RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU! HE WANTS YOUR HEART, NOT JUST REPEATING A SCRIPT AFTER SOMEONE, BUT INTENDING TO CONTINUE TO WALK IN YOUR OLD WAYS, PURPOSES, THOUGHTS, AND ACTIONS.

Now, You CANNOT CHANGE YOURSELF, THAT'S HIS JOB, AND THAT IS WHY YOU ARE GIVEN THE HOLY SPIRIT TO LIVE WITHIN YOU. Your part is to SURRENDER TO HIM, because He is a gentleman. He will NEVER FORCE His will upon you.

So, He knows all your addictions, habits, and strongholds. All you need to do is open up your heart and your life to Him. Understand, He knows all the thoughts and intents of your heart; you can't hide anything from Him. He knows you through and through, and He loves you anyway- more than you can even...

A Simple Way to Fund the Gospel: Life Insurance with an Eternal Impact

A BIG IMPACT LATER!

GIVING BEYOND A LIFETIME

Our Gift to you
A Free Will or Living Trust
No purchase Necessary

In these perilous times, the gospel must go forth like never before. As believers, we are called to steward our resources wisely, ensuring that God's work continues—not just during our lifetime but even after we have gone home to be with the Lord.

One of the simplest and most powerful ways to support the gospel is by tithing on your estate through life insurance or annuities. Many assume estate-giving is only for the wealthy, but the truth is, when many believers each contribute a portion, we can collectively and miraculously fund the Kingdom.

You can easily designate a portion of your existing life insurance policy—or purchase a new, affordable policy—naming your church, a ministry, a missionary, or an orphanage as a beneficiary. It's as simple as updating your beneficiary designation or setting up a policy with this purpose in mind. If you rely on an income now, like an annuity, you can also structure one to continue funding the gospel after your passing.

Think about it: Would your church miss your tithe when you're gone? What about the missionaries, ministries, and outreaches that depend on your monthly support? With a little planning, you can ensure they continue receiving support, even in your absence.

This is not about taking away from your family's needs—it's about comfortably and affordably protecting both your loved ones and the work of the Lord. God honors the giver, and as Scripture reminds us, "Give, and it shall be given unto you" (Luke 6:38). At WeFundTheGospel.org, we specialize in utilizing proven financial tools to effectively fund the gospel. Whether it's through life insurance, annuities, or legacy planning, our mission is to help everyday believers leave an eternal impact.

To help you take the first step, we're offering a FREE Will or Living Trust—prepared by Christian attorneys and valid in all 50 states—with absolutely no obligation to purchase anything. This is our gift to you.

Satan Doesn't Live Here Anymore

My wife and I were asked to go to a healing seminar in Bartow, Florida. My wife was asked to give a message from the Lord. She studied for some time to prepare her message and, I believe, gave the right message the people wanted to hear. My job at these seminars is to handle all music and computer needs. I set up the equipment and operate the laptop to put the songs on the screens for the singers to sing. My wife finished her message and wanted to pray for everyone. There were about 20 people at this seminar. My wife asked me if I would stand behind the people and be led by the Holy Spirit. This seminar, I felt I needed to lay hands on the people and pray in tongues, which I did for everyone. Prior to us going to the seminar, we prayed in our war room, in our house, to prepare for the seminar. My wife prayed for herself to be saturated in the blood of Jesus, but I did not. So, at the seminar, we finished praying for everyone and felt the Lord touched everyone. The pastor invited all who attended the seminar to dinner at a local restaurant. After dinner, my wife told me that the enemy tried to attack her, but since she was covered in the Blood of Jesus, the devil had no effect on her. We get home, and we are pretty tired. We go to bed about 9:00 PM, knowing we have to get up early for church. Now it's about 10:30, and I can't fall asleep. All of a sudden, I start feeling pain in my chest. I go to the bathroom, and I have a dry, raspy cough and the taste of iron in my mouth. I try to relieve it by cleaning out my stomach. I go back to bed, but I am having a hard time breathing. Back in July 2020, the devil attacked me with blood clots in my lungs, and breathing was very difficult. I went to Quick Care and they immediately sent me to the hospital, where I stayed for 7 days, but the Lord and the hospital staff healed me. So now, back in bed, I'm experiencing the same symptoms I had back in 2020, where breathing was very difficult. I go to the couch and try to sit up, but breathing is still tough. My wife is by my side during this whole time, praying for me. I then went and sat in my computer chair, as it was more upright, but the pain and hard breathing didn't stop. If this continued, I would have gone to the emergency room. Then my wife sprang into action. She said, devil I'm not taking this anymore and went and got the anointing oil and put it on my chest and commanded the spirit of darkness out of me, in the Name of Jesus. She boldly proclaimed the Name of Jesus and kept commanding the darkness to leave my body. As my wife was boldly proclaiming, my body jerked a couple of times, and suddenly my breathing was back to normal. That evil spirit left my body. My wife even opened the sliding door and commanded the evil spirit to leave our house. We went back to bed and slept six hours straight before we had to get up and prepare for church. We decided next time we prepare for a seminar, we will both pray to be covered in the Blood of Jesus for His protection over evil. Saints, the power of Jesus works if you are bold enough to exercise your faith and grow in the power of the Lord. Ephesians 6:10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Thank you, Jesus!!!

Strong Holy Spirit! Real, Thrilling Incident

My Mother was a principal in a Higher Secondary School in Bhilai State, Chattisgarh, India. She was a very strict administrator, a diligent Hard worker; she won't tolerate laziness, but the majority of the teachers used to be lazy & sloppy. Teachers will be chit-chatting in the staffroom in spite of having their Class times. They will arrive late to their classes. Students will be shouting and talking inside the class due to the teacher's absence.

Once she went to take rounds of all the classrooms, she found in one classroom students making noises, and no teacher was present in the class. She inquired about whose teacher period this is, then she went to the staffroom and saw the same teacher whose class it was, chit-chatting in the staffroom with other teachers. My Mom scolded that teacher, shouted at her as to why she is sitting in the staffroom in spite of having a class. That teacher got very angry, annoyed, and then went to take the class... After that, the teacher complained to her Relative, A Union Leader (Labor Unions Are Continued on Page:7

God Encounter

Laura Upleger

I first attended a God Encounter Conference in 2009 while attending the Institute of Ministry at Christian Retreat in Bradenton, Florida. That experience stirred something in my spirit! At that time in my life I can't say that I fully understood the concept of an encounter with God. Having been raised in a Christian home and regularly attending church services, my only experience of encountering God was in church. He was talked about in every message, He was sung about in every song, he was in the pages of the Bible stories I heard over and over again and I learned, at age 12, He came into my heart when I asked Him to. God was everywhere! For much of my adult life, although I believed God had come into my heart, I merely saw Him as an external God. I had not embrace the fact that He was not just "out there" somewhere but that when He came into my heart He was now an internal God. He was the God of the universe who had taken up residence in me! My heart's desire for my life is now to be filled up to all God's fullness. The Bible says that God is an all consuming fire (Hebrews 12:29). We know that what goes into the fire cannot come out unchanged. I believe that when we encounter God, we also leave changed forever. This statement comes from a place of experience and expectation. I believe this can happen in any one's life as we yield to the presence of God. Psalm 32:8 "The Lord says, I will guide you along the best path for your life. I will advise you and watch over you." Encountering God establishes a hunger for His presence in every area of our life. Maybe you've never had a life-changing encounter with God but in your heart you want to experience His presence in your life. Maybe you're in a place where you've gone astray from your first love in Christ and need to rededicate your life to Him. Or maybe you've never taken the opportunity to make Jesus your Lord and Savior. This God Encounter is designed to intimately seek God through a series of experiences and teaching that will result in a visible change in the course of your life. Jeremiah 29 promises that if you seek Him, you will find Him, if you seek Him with all your heart. Do you long to genuinely experience God in your life? This God Encounter will forever change you, your perspective, your relationships and your future. You'll never be the same! Come, discover what it means to truly encounter God and realize your full potential through the power of the Holy Spirit from the Alter of God to the Coronation of Jesus Christ and so much more in between! A few testimonies from previous God Encounters: "Simply put, it changed my life...I have found the one my heart longs for" "Wonderful! Amazing!every session revealed more of the Father, Son "I had a vision during the quiet time of lots of green and purple grapes." "I found myself not wanting it to end! A taste of heaven on earth..."

A Generation Made Ready: Supernatural Stories from The Front

From Page 1 ... the Lord—"747"—had Michelle thinking of an airplane. But as she prayed, the Lord clarified: it wasn't a large Boeing 747; it was Luke 7:47." Those who are forgiven much, love much." From that moment, a fresh vision was born within The Front. Rather than a new ministry, it was a deeper call to identity. The Lord was highlighting a company of worshipers marked by redemption—men and women once broken, addicted, or lost, now burning with love for Jesus. These are the 747 worshipers: a generation who've encountered radical forgiveness and now live with wholehearted devotion. From their gatherings have come miraculous testimonies, like the story of a local brothel owner who, after months of consistent prayer and compassion by the team, shut his doors and asked for help getting his girls clean and employed. This outreach began with prayer walking on 14th Street in Bradenton, where the team noticed odd late-night activity behind "massage parlors." Soon, a dozen team members began consistently showing up—sometimes with roses, always with prayer. Eventually, hearts softened, and the power of God showed up in miraculous ways. In Bradenton, they share their building with recovery ministries, Bible studies, and a local church. They are in the process of opening Ahava Coffee Co., a coffee shop that will be open during the day to reach the college campuses located not far down the road. Multiplication in Port Charlotte During the pandemic, God stirred again. A group of youth was driving 90 minutes from Port Charlotte just to attend

The Front in Bradenton. The Lord confirmed it: "X marks the spot." A building on Toledo Blade Blvd—right at a crossroads—opened up miraculously. Within days, God provided a sound system, keyboard, and resources unsolicited. That building, affectionately nicknamed "The Front 2.0," now hosts men's and women's gatherings, prophetic worship, and ongoing outreach. Intercessors meet weekly. Recovery ministries, Bible studies, and a local church all share the space. "We just want to use it for the Kingdom," they say. From Bradenton to the Nations Many of the original youth who once sat under John and Michelle's leadership are now pastors, missionaries, and evangelists across the globe. Some just returned from Iraq and Pakistan. Others are work ing with the homeless, drug-addicted, or incarcerated right here in Florida. "Our ceiling is their floor," Michelle says, "We've prayed that for years, and now we're seeing it happen." A young man who was raised at The Front now leads a thriving church in Mexico. What You'll Find at The Front Beyond the Monday and Thursday gatherings, The Front hosts:

 ► Weekly street outreach
 ► Recovery nights
 ► Prophetic worship encounters
 ► Prayer teams & worship teams in training

Lord, Fill the House: "A Cry for Glory in Our Lives and Churches"

Worship with Sharilee, Prophetic Devotionals

By Sharilee Rudolph | fruitful4him@outlook.com

Glory- Ezekiel 10: "Then the glory of the Lord mounted up from the cherubim to stand over the threshold of the (Lord's) house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory."

Abba Father, my heart cries out for the glory of the Lord to be manifested in the house of the Lord. In the house we gather in as well as our personal lives to be carriers of the glory!

Mount up from the cherubim and stand over the threshold of the Lord's house. May we come to the place where we live so close to you that we are filled with the brightness of your glory!

I yield my heart every moment to be changed from glory to glory into the likeness of Jesus! I repent of every thought, what I heard, every action contrary to your word and will for me.

Thank you for covering me as I sit in this most holy time and giving me Jesus!

Fill my life with your glory!

With your goodness! May the brightness of your glory fill the house where we gather till there is no doubt you are Lord of Lords and King of Kings!

Beloved, prepare your heart today to be a glory carrier, if that is your cry! He will come and the fire of his presence will consume you!

Live life from the secret place and you will bear the fruit of the spirit. In Jesus name Glory! In Jesus name I live.

When Faith Speaks Louder Than Fear: A 2 For Christ Testimony

By Cliff & Charlene Townsley | Ct1400@yahoo.com

A Journey of Faith

Years ago, and we mean years ago, tithing for Cliff and me was minimal. If we could give, we did, but rarely did it reach 10%. In some seasons, we didn't tithe at all.

But everything changed when the Lord, through His Word and faithful preachers, began convicting our hearts. As we started to "work the Word," something began to shift—not just in our finances but in our faith. It wasn't immediate. There were questions, ups, and downs. But one thing we learned for sure: He's an on-time God.

Faith Is a Muscle—and Ours Got Stronger

Like any muscle, faith has to be exercised. And yes, it was sore at first. But as we stretched in obedience, spiritual growth followed. We discovered an unshakable truth: you cannot outgive the Lord.

We began to see our finances multiply. God not only blessed us with enough for our needs but also enabled us to start blessing others. And not just financially—God used us to give in many other ways as well. He stretched every seed.

Over the years, the blessings came in forms too numerous to count. At times, thousands of dollars in bills were paid off, and we hadn't spent a dime. Our Father did it all. We pray and ask God for 2 For Christ to be a Blessing, and He does.

It's Not Us—It's God

We often say, "We are bragging on God, definitely not ourselves." We are just vessels. There was a time in our lives when we were the takers. Now, after many years of walking with Jesus, we are the givers. And that transformation came only through a relationship with Jesus Christ—through hearing His voice, walking in obedience, and most of all, through love.

Blind Eyes Opened! Report from Liberia

By Evangelist Daniel King | www.kingministries.com

I just finished a great crusade in Kolahun, Liberia, and my heart is overflowing with gratitude. Thank you for praying, giving, and standing with me on this mission. Because of your partnership, we saw God move in extraordinary ways! Here's a glimpse of what happened during the Gospel crusade and pastors' conference:

A City Shaken by the Power of God:

Each night of the crusade, the crusade field in Kolahun filled with hungry hearts. Crowds grew as word spread about what God was doing. By the final night, thousands had gathered, many hearing the Gospel for the very first time. We boldly preached Jesus crucified, risen, and coming again—and the response was overwhelming. Men, women, and children poured forward to give their lives to Christ. Entire families were saved!

Miracles and Healings:

On the first night of the crusade in Kolahun, Liberia, I announced, "Tomorrow night, I am going to pray for blind eyes to be opened. If you know someone who is blind, bring them so that God can do a miracle in their eyes." The next night, many blind people came to the crusade because many people were anxious to see if God would actually heal anyone. I preached on the story of Blind Bartimaeus. When he heard that Jesus was passing by, he cried out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me." The people in the crowd told him to be quiet. He yelled even louder, "Jesus!" When Jesus heard his cries, He stopped and said, "Bring him to me."

Bartimaeus left his begging cloak in the dust and came towards the sound of Jesus' voice. Jesus said, "What do you want me to do for you?" In response, Bartimaeus could have asked for a dollar, or a bowl of food, or for a new clock, but instead he said, "Teacher, I want to see." Jesus said, "Go, your faith has healed you." Immediately, Bartimaeus received his sight, and he followed Jesus.

"Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever," I preached, "if He healed blind Bartimaeus two thousand years ago, he can heal you today." I prayed for blind eyes to be opened.

Near the platform, there was a woman who started to shout. I told the ushers, "Bring her here." She came to the platform and said, "I had an infection in my eyes, and I have not been able to see, but when you prayed for blind eyes to open, suddenly I was able to see." She had a big smile on her face. I asked her to test her eyesight by trying to touch my nose. She reached out her finger and tried to touch my nose, but I ducked. Her finger followed. I moved left and right and ran backwards away from her. She followed me with her finger until she finally touched my nose. I asked her, "Were you able to see before?" "No, not at all," she replied. "Who healed you?" I asked. She joyfully shouted her reply, "Jesus!"

Because of her testimony, many people were healed that night. A parade of a dozen people walking with their canes held up in the air was one of the highlights. Jesus truly is alive and healing people today.

Equipping the Local Church:

We also held a pastors and leaders conference, training over 500 pastors and church workers from surrounding towns and villages. These men and women of God were equipped with tools to reach their communities, preach the Gospel, and disciple new believers. Some traveled for hours through rough terrain just to attend, and they left ignited with fresh vision and passion for evangelism.

This mission was part of a broader vision to reach every town and village in Liberia with the Gospel. What happened in Kolahun was just the beginning!

Thank you for helping make this possible through your prayers and support. We are reaping a harvest together! Let's keep reaching the unreached—until every nation hears.

For the Harvest, Evangelist Daniel King

will reap with shouts of joy." – Psalm 126:5

Supreme Power of The Holy Spirit

That Union Leader called my mother over the phone and threatened her, saying that he would conduct a Strike in her school tomorrow, asking my all teachers to demonstrate on the roads and not to attend their teaching Periods. He said he would come tomorrow to meet my Mom in the school office at 9 a.m. My Mother Got Anxious, Anguished, Fearful since that Union Leader was powerful, famous, Rude, Cruel man....My mom's whole reputation was in danger. She was the Principal of one of the most reputed Schools. In the whole Bhlai Township, the Strike News will spread like WildFire... Local Newspapers and local TV Channels will report the strike. Shame, Dishonor, Reproach She will Get!

My Mother started praying...The Next Day came. It was 9 a.m., and my mother was continuously praying in unknown tongues while sitting in her Principal Seat. That Union Leader came, sat in front of my Mother, The Mighty Holy Spirit was Praying, Interceding. Without control, my mother was speaking in unknown tongues... My mother was expecting Him to shout at her and initiate the Teachers' strike, but the Mighty, Strong Holy Spirit started pleading and interceding in unknown tongues.

How True is the Word of God, Holy Spirit Intercedes in our Weakness, when we are in danger, sorrowful, don't know how to pray, Holy Spirit Intercedes, Prays for us....Romans 8:26 Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Romans 8:26

5 minutes gone, 10 minutes gone, 15 minutes gone, that the Union leader could not open His mouth or speak a single word... Then quietly he went away, without initiating any strike... That's the Power of the Holy Spirit; whoever tries to touch God's Children will be stopped and burned by the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit has Great power. When the enemy comes in like a flood, The Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him. Isaiah 59:19 God, who shut the mouth of lions, Is Still Alive Today...God of Daniel Is Still Alive and Has All Power & Authority. Jesus Christ Is the Same, Yesterday, Today, and Forever. Hebrews 13:8 Thus, my mother was saved from a terrible, critical, ugly situation...

And after that, she was honored and was given the President Award by the then President of India, Dr. A.P. J Abdul Kalam (Picture Attached) How True is the Word of God- Instead of Your Shame, You will Have Double Honor. Isaiah 61:7. And needless to say, those teachers, union leaders who tried to harm my mother's reputation, God's Divine judgment came, they were sidelined in their position by their management, it was terrible.... Cheer up, my dear Precious Brother, Sister! God will not leave you in the hands of Cruel, Wicked, Terrible people. "I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked, And I will redeem you from the grip of the terrible." Jeremiah 15:21 Amen, Amen, Amen But you shall receive power (ability, efficiency, and might) when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be My witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judea and Samaria and to the ends (the very bounds) of the earth. Acts 1:8 And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Comforter (Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengtheners, and Standby), that He may remain with you forever—The Holy Spirit. John 14:16 But the Comforter - The Holy Spirit-(Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengtheners, Standby), the Holy Spirit, Whom the Father will send in My name [in My place, to represent Me and act on My behalf], He will teach you all things. And He will cause you to recall (will remind you of, bring to your remembrance) everything I have told you. John 14:26 So too the [Holy] Spirit comes to our aid and bears us up in our weakness; for we do not know what prayer to offer nor how to offer it worthily as we ought, but the Spirit Himself goes to meet our supplication and pleads in our behalf with unspeakable yearnings and groanings too deep for utterance. Romans 8:26 And it shall come to pass in the last days, God declares, that I will pour out of My Spirit upon all mankind, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy [telling forth the divine counsels] and your young men shall see visions (divinely granted appearances), and your old men shall dream [divinely suggested] dreams. Acts 2:17 How God anointed and consecrated Jesus of Nazareth with the [Holy] Spirit and with strength and ability and power; how He went about doing good and, in particular, curing all who were harassed and oppressed by [the power of] the devil, for God was with Him. Acts 10:38

HHS Secretary Robert Kennedy Defends US Leaving WHO

Susan Berry, Ph.D. | LifeNews.com

U.S. Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. told the World Health Assembly (WHA) he is calling for a “reboot” of a global health system that will mirror what the Trump administration is implementing through its Make America Healthy Again (MAHA) movement in the US.

In a video message Tuesday to world health ministers gathered in Geneva, Switzerland, Kennedy reviewed the reason President Donald Trump withdrew the US from the World Health Organization (WHO), the health agency of the United Nations (UN), via an executive order on the first day of his new term. “Like many legacy institutions, the WHO has become mired in bureaucratic bloat, entrenched paradigms, conflicts of interest and international power politics,” Kennedy asserted. “While the United States has provided the lion’s share of the organization’s funding, historically, other countries, such as China have exerted undue influence over its operations in ways that serve their own interests and not particularly the interests of the global public.”

He also observed that, during the COVID pandemic, the WHO succumbed to pressure from China to suppress reports of human-to-human transmission” of the virus “and then worked with China to promote the fiction that COVID originated from bats or pangolins rather than from a Chinese government sponsored research at a biolab in Wuhan.”

“Not only has the WHO capitulated to political pressure from China,” Kennedy argued, “it’s also failed to maintain an organization characterized by transparency and fair governance by and for its member states.”

“The WHO often acts like it has forgotten that its members must remain accountable to their own citizens and not to transnational or corporate interests,” he added.

Kennedy continued that, even though he believes most of those who work for the WHO have good intentions, too often “the WHO’s priorities have increasingly reflected the biases and interests of corporate medicine; too often it has allowed political agendas like pushing harmful gender ideology to hijack its core mission; and too often, it has become the tool of politics and turned its back on promoting health and health security.”

Despite the US’ withdrawal from the WHO, President Trump and his administration remain invested in global cooperation on the issue of health, according to Kennedy.

Nevertheless, even with exposure of the corruption behind COVID pandemic policies, the WHO “has doubled down with the pandemic agreement, which will lock in all of the dysfunctions of the WHO pandemic response,” he warned.

“We’re not going to participate in that,” Kennedy asserted. “We need to reboot the whole system, as we are doing in the United States.”

In explaining the Trump HHS’ MAHA agenda, Kennedy said the US will still “focus on infectious disease and pandemic preparedness” but shift its priorities “to focus on chronic diseases, which are prevalent in the United States” and “sickening our people and bankrupting our healthcare system.”

“We’re going to make healthcare in the United States serve the needs of the public, instead of industry profit-taking,” by “removing food dyes and other harmful additives from our food supply,” he said. “We’re investigating the causes of autism and other chronic diseases. We’re seeking to reduce consumption of ultra-processed foods, and we’re going to support lifestyle changes that will bolster the immune systems and transform the health of our people.”

Kennedy said the changes the US is making amount to a “systemic overhaul,” adding that the Trump administration would like to “see a similar reordering of priorities on the global stage, especially considering the fact that through the leadership of the United States and funding from our country, over the past 25 years, millions of global citizens have seen a reduction in premature death due to HIV, TB and malaria.”

The US secretary urged his counterparts in other nations and the WHO “to take our withdrawal from the organization as a wake-up call.”

“It isn’t that President Trump and I have lost interest in international cooperation, not at all,” he said. “We just want it to happen in a way that’s fair and efficient and transparent for all the member states.”

Kennedy also noted the Trump administration has already reached out to other “like-minded countries,” urging others to join them.

“We want a free international health cooperation from the straitjacket of political interference by corrupting influences of the pharmaceutical companies, of adversarial nations and their NGO proxies,” he concluded. “I would like to take this opportunity to invite my fellow health ministers around the world into a new era of cooperation.”

CUFI Horrified by Pro-Hamas Terror Attack in Washington

www.cufi.org

WASHINGTON – Following Wednesday evening’s horrific terror attack on an event hosted by the American Jewish Committee (AJC) at the Capital Jewish Museum, the leadership of Christians United for Israel (CUFI) expressed their heartbreak and outrage over the cold-blooded murders of Yaron Lischinsky, Sarah Milgrim and the wounding of four others:

“May the God of all hope comfort those who mourn as we weep for Yaron and Sarah. We pray for their loved ones and continue to stand resolutely with Israel and the Jewish people against this unmitigated evil. If there is a line to be drawn, then draw it around both Christians and Jews, for we are one. This terror attack reminds the world that Jew hatred begins with words, but it doesn’t end there,” said CUFI founder and Chairman Pastor John Hagee.

“Our thoughts and prayers are with our friends at the Israeli Embassy and American Jewish Committee. The terrorists will not win, and those who wish to globalize the intifada will be defeated. Know this, the Jewish people and Israel are not alone, not today, not ever,” Pastor Hagee added.

“This tragedy is a har-binger for what is to come if our leaders continue to equivocate in the face of Jew hatred. The policies that this crisis demands — defining, combating, and physically defending against antisemitism, are neither partisan nor political: they are a moral imperative. Any elected official that has the temerity to oppose protecting religious institutions or the Antisemitism Awareness Act is effectively aiding and abetting the pro-Hamas movement in America. Or, was the terrorist simply exercising his freedom of speech as he screamed ‘Free Palestine’ after he killed a Yaron and Sarah?” said CUFI Action Fund Chairwoman Sandra Hagee.

With more than 10 million members, Christians United for Israel is the largest pro-Israel organization in the United States and one of the leading Christian grassroots movements in the world. CUFI spans all fifty states and reaches millions with its educational message.

The CUFI Action Fund, a nonprofit 501(c)(4), nonpartisan organization, is the policy arm of the nation’s largest pro-Israel organization, Christians United for Israel (CUFI). The Action Fund is dedicated to ensuring our elected officials hear the perspective of the millions of Christian Zionists across the country.

Do You Know Jesus???

From Page: 3 ...imagine. You just need to receive the power of the work of the cross and the power of His Resurrection in your life. You make the decision from your heart to receive the power of the Blood that still flows from the Mercy Seat today, on your behalf, to wash all your sins away. No matter how big, bad, and ugly you feel, or think you were or are. Jesus is ready to manifest His forgiveness and His love to you. He has purchased your redemption for you on the cross of Calvary and sealed it with the power of His Resurrection. All you need to do is to SURRENDER, AND YIELD all who you are, for all who He is. We acknowledge that He is the way, the truth, the life, and the light of man, and the only way to heaven. Admitting that you are a sinner, and that you can’t save yourself, no matter how good you think you are, that there is only one who is good, and that is Jesus Christ, King of kings, and Lord of lords. We have all sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. Jesus came and took our place so that we could be washed of all our sins and have a place with Him in heaven. We admit with our mouth that Jesus is Lord, and we ask Him to be Lord over our lives and come into our hearts and take over the reins of our lives. But the Word continues in John 10 v 9. that with the mouth we confess, but with the heart we believe, so it is first and foremost important to truly make the decision to open your heart and receive Him as your Lord and Savior, and hand over the reins of your life to Him. As it’s not just a mouth thing, it’s a heart attitude also! It’s an exchange of all you are, for all He is. He is beautiful, and He accomplished a complete work at the

From Page 6 ...mit to a long-term schedule. They all knew school would resume in the fall. So, we prayed. And we agreed—God would take care of our needs like He always had. We stood firm on Matthew 6:33 “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.”

That Monday afternoon, we prayed specifically for a large bill that was due. By 9:30 p.m. that very night, we received a message: 2 For Christ had just been sent $2,000—enough to cover the bill. Not only that, but the sender said all of our monthly bills for the entire summer would be taken care of, and not to concern myself with working!

We hadn’t told anyone our need. Only God knew, and He answered. He is so faithful. We are overwhelmed...

Living Matthew 6:33 Every Day

Today, we are 95% debt-free. God has blessed us so much that we no longer tithe just 10%. We give more. It was another step of faith, because we felt the Lord wanted us to, and He’s been faithful every time.

At 2 For Christ, we’ve learned that when the checking account looks empty, that’s our cue to fill it with seed, faith, and prayer—and then step back and watch God grow it. He’s done it again and again.

If He did it for us, He can do it for you. Listen to the Holy Spirit; he can and will use you the same way. He is no respecter of persons.

Final Word: Look Up Matthew 6:33 It’s the verse we stood on years ago—and still do to this day.

“But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” Matthew 6:33

“If they arrest me, I will deny You” — but then the unexpected happened

Iran (MNN) — Christians in Iran are people like you and me, not superheroes. But when the pressure comes on, God comes through in extraordinary ways and they find He's right there with them. Reverend Shah Ahmadi with Iran Alive Ministries says discipleship for new believers in Iran includes this message: “If you want to follow Christ, you should be ready to lose everything.” But one of Iran Alive's contacts was honest with God after she and her husband first became Christians. She would cry in bed at night. “I love you, Jesus. I love what you did. I accept you. But it's very hard for me practical[ly] to go to [the] Iranian regime and prison, whatever [could happen]. So don't test me, don't put me in that kind of place.”

Then what she feared came true. Her husband was arrested and so was she. Then came the moment she stood before a judge.

“Are you a Christian?” he asked her. It was her chance to say no and claim she had been deceived. She was ready to do just that... but suddenly she found she was mute! In her heart she recognized God giving her a choice to deny or not deny Him. She realized she would rather speak and go to prison than remain mute and perhaps go free. “During that time, I received a special grace and boldness I never had — scared like a baby! Suddenly my lips start opening, and I start testifying: ‘Yes, I am a Christian. I used to be afraid of sharing, and now God gave me grace to share with you.’” God gave her a word of knowledge about the judge: “You [are] going through marriage problem,” she told him. “If you want to save your life, you need to give your life to Jesus Christ.” Later, the judge visited her one-on-one in a prison cell, asking how she knew what he was going through. The presence of God came to her again. She said it was God-given knowledge and only Jesus could save the judge's marriage. “I'm going to help you and your husband get out of the prison,” the judge told her, “and you help me and my wife to be disciple of Jesus Christ.” Ahmadi says these two couples are now disciples of Christ inside Iran. “This is one of the most brave [stories], because I see their weakness, and I see a power of God. I see a grace of God in our most vulnerable area, [when] we are unable to do anything,” Ahmadi says. Please take a moment and pray for strength for Iranian Christians under extraordinary pressure today. During 2024, nearly 100 Iranian Christians were sentenced to a combined 263 years in prison, a massive uptick compared to 2023 (source: Article18). Connect with Iran Alive Ministries for more stories and opportunities to stand with the Iranian church.

Take Charge Foundation to Host Free Online Seminar for Seniors on June 17 About Donations to Church Ministries

By The Take Charge Foundation | www.TakeCharge.foundation

BLOOMFIELD, Conn., May 15, 2025 /Christian Newswire/ — The Take Charge Foundation in Bloomfield, Connecticut, will host a free online Zoom seminar for seniors on Tuesday, June 17 at 7 p.m. EDT. “Contributing to Your Church Ministries Directly from Your Retirement Accounts” will be facilitated by Brenden Healy, CPA. The seminar will share how seniors may save money on federal taxes by making contributions to their church from their retirement accounts. By law, at a certain age, seniors are required to begin withdrawing money from their 401(k), IRA or other retirement accounts, and must pay taxes on the money they withdraw. However, seniors who set up the process to have their retirement money sent directly to the church pay no taxes on the donated money. Healy has decades of expertise working with individuals and non-profits. He holds a B.S. in Accounting from Central Connecticut State University and a M.S. in Taxation from the University of Hartford. He is an active member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants, where he served as Chairman of the Society's State Taxation Committee and as a member of its Board of Directors. He is Partner-in-Charge

From Page 2 ...world of human souls. Our effort as true born-again believers in Jesus Christ and what He accomplished at the Cross, is to proclaim three basic Verses of Scriptures of God's Word: 1. John 3:16. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. 2. Romans 10:9-10. That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 3. Acts Chapter 2: Baptism in the Holy Spirit: When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Brothers and sisters in Christ, let's keep our minds and efforts on God's plan for souls until we join Him in His glorious realm. To God be all the glory! This is God's Truth! How You Can Help:

To sustain and expand this ministry, we are asking for additional support. While a church has generously sponsored many films, we aim to raise $100-$200 per film to support the filmmakers so they can receive something for showing their movies. Individuals or groups can sponsor films like: • A Matter of Faith • Play the Flute • The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry • And many others of their choosing. Sponsors have the unique opportunity to contribute to these life-changing efforts, and you can even create a follow-up gospel video to accompany your sponsored film.

THE CROSS OF CHRIST

Proof God Still Sends the Right People at the Right Time!

By Ken Carpenter | elderkc134@gmail.com

This past week, on Wednesday, I saw how the Lord watches and protects us, I was installing an air conditioning system in a commercial building by myself; I had to lay the air handler down and attach a return box on it. Being 77 years old, my mind tells me to do something, but my body says no way, I couldn't lift it. About that time, a delivery truck driver walked into the building to deliver a package and helped me stand the unit up, I gave him a $20 bill, being thankful for the help. Later, the owner walked in and saw the package.

He looked at it and said, It is not mine, wrong address. I didn't think much about it till Friday. The week before, I had installed an air conditioning system for a lady by myself. I could unload the unit, but couldn't load the old unit. I have learned over the years that gravity will help you unload, but is very stubborn to help you load up. I told her I would be back next week and pick up the unit, so on Friday, I went down with a lift so I could load it. The lift broke and couldn't lift the heavy unit, about a foot high. As I was pondering what to do, this guy walked up and asked, "Do you need help?" We lifted it up and loaded it on my truck. I tried to give him some money, but he would not take it. I finished loading, and as I was driving off, I saw him tilling his garden around 500 to 600 feet away. He walked that far to help me. Then I knew it was the Lord who brought the truck driver to the wrong address and moved on to the man working on his garden to help me. The Lord helps us folks who can't help ourselves! He is Faithful, cry out!!

Do You Know Jesus???

From Page 8 ... cross for you. It's all He is, which is outlined in His Holy Word. It's spirit, soul (mind, will, and emotions), and body. He left nothing out that needs the power of His blood to wash over, and wash through and through, to make all things new. He left nothing out, as He said, "It is finished!" Then He went into hell and took back from Satan the keys of hell, death, and the grave. He went into heaven and proceeded to the altar in heaven, not one made of hands but the heavenly one, the mercy seat with the power of His blood, and completed the work. There was one thing more, and that was to send the Holy Spirit to live within you, to be your comforter, helper, strengthener, standby, intercessor, advocate, and all that you need to live holy and victoriously for your precious Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. All for the asking, all for the receiving, as you yield and surrender your heart and life to Him. He will then walk with you, in this life, every step of the way, bringing from glory to glory, day by day, as you continue to turn to Him, more and more, with all that He shows you, too, in life. You will come to know His Holy Spirit, and the beauty of his presence like nothing you have ever experienced, and you will fall in love with Him more and more each time. I remember when Jesus appeared to me many years ago in my kitchen in Staten Island, New York, and stood in front of me, put out His hands, and asked me to put my hands in His. It was like nothing I had ever experienced, and it was the most beautiful experience I had ever known. I will never ever forget it. Jesus is God, and He is real! God is real! When you open your heart and life to Him, sometimes it's step by step, and moment by moment, you will come to know the beauty of His presence also. When you finally SURRENDER YOUR LIFE TO HIM, you will know beyond a shadow of a doubt that JESUS CHRIST IS REAL, AND HE IS WHO HE SAID HE IS, AND HE HAS DONE WHAT HE SAID HE HAS DONE, AND HE IS READY TO MANIFEST HIMSELF IN YOUR LIFE! Lay it all down at the cross and receive His FORGIVENESS TODAY! His LIFE, HIS LOVE FOR YOU. The POWER TO SET YOU FREE. TO MAKE ALL THINGS NEW, WITHIN YOU, AND IN YOUR LIFE (All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God;

no one is good. Have you ever lied, stolen, cheated, looked at someone with lust, had bitterness and resentment towards someone?) ONLY ONE IS GOOD! Take out your bible and read... ROM. 3 V 24V 25 only by FAITH...ROM 6. 6 V 23, ROM 10 V 9..WITH THE HEART WE BELIEVE AND RECEIVE.. (Don't wait till it's too late!! NO EXIT DOORS IN HELL, NO RE-DOES!) Today is the day for Salvation. You don't know if you have tomorrow. When you take your last breath, if you don't know Jesus as your Lord and Savior, remember, as I read on a Facebook post lately. "There are no exit doors in hell, and there are no re-dos. So don't wait to invite Jesus into your heart and life. You won't regret it; it will be like the first day of the rest of your life. As you allow Him, He will walk with you through all that life throws at you, and show you by His Word and His Spirit how to walk as an overcomer by faith in Him. Many Blessings, Sarah Jansson G.C.M.A. S.W. Tears, Triumph, and Transformation at Arcadia Outreach

By He's Alive News Staff Writer

ARCADIA, FL – June 7, 2025 — Under the blazing Florida sun, a small but mighty team from Heart of Mercy Ministries and GCMA Southwest Florida hit the streets outside the Arcadia flea market with one mission: feed the hungry, clothe the needy, and preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. Led by regional coordinator and vice president Sarah Jansson, the outreach brought practical help and spiritual hope to many who had little to their name—but were rich in hunger for God. Among the many touched was a man riding an old tricycle with all his belongings in a paper bag. He owned only two shirts. But by day's end, he left with a bag full of brand-new clothing, a generous supply of food, and tears in his eyes after receiving heartfelt prayer from the team. "This was the best moment of the day," Sarah shared. "It was clear the Spirit of God was touching his heart." The outreach included a distribution of MREs (Meals Ready to Eat), clothing, and compassionate prayer. Dozens were blessed—spirit, soul, and body. "People were touched by the Lord. There was a great turnout, and many lives were impacted," said Sarah. Heart of Mercy Ministries and GCMA continue to model what it means to live the gospel—not just preach it—with hands that serve and hearts through, embodying their apostolic and prophetic love. As Sarah put it, "This is what ministry looks like in real life." + JESUS IS LORD! + streets.
