"Never Give Up on Jesus"

By Jean Brown Nikolich

An Eyewitness Miraculous Testimony that happened at The Institute of Ministry

I have an eyewitness account because I was there. I witnessed it. I saw it with my own eyes. This is not hearsay — I was present.

Back in 2010, when I attended the Institute of Ministry (IOM) at Christian Retreat in Bradenton, there was a girl in our class named Kathy. IOM is a ten-week course, and Kathy had come knowing she had been given only two weeks to live. She said that in those last two weeks, she wanted to devote herself completely to God. Kathy had cancer throughout her body. Her organs were shutting down. She was in terrible condition. But every week, she came to class.

As the weeks went on, they had to begin strapping her into her wheelchair because she could no longer hold her body upright. Still, every week, she came. Hallelujah.

We passed the two-week mark. Then three weeks. Then a full month. Then the second month. Hallelujah! She was still declining physically. Her body was failing. Things were happening internally that were visibly affecting her. Yet she remained faithful.

Graduation time came. They wheeled her out, and by then she had pillows surrounding her body, belts strapped around her, and supports at her shoulders to help hold her head up.

That Saturday, a pastor named Dr. Nasir Siddiki, who had a healing ministry, came to minister. He gave an altar call for healing. Kathy had previously gone forward for prayer many times — whenever ministers came, including well-known healing evangelists. She always went up for prayer. But nothing had changed. This time, her parents were present. They had been told to come because of her condition. Kathy prayed and said, "Lord, if my father receives the gift of tongues, I will go up for healing."

Her father had never embraced that gift before. But suddenly, he stood up, went forward, and began speaking in tongues. Kathy kept her promise to God and said, "Wheel me down." I will be transparent — as I sat there, I thought, "Why bother?" Looking at her condition, I struggled to believe anything would change.

But a fellow student, Daniel (who later became my husband) jumped up and began cheering her on like at an athletic event. www.christianretreat.org/institute-of-ministry

"Go, Kathy! Go, Kathy!" They wheeled her forward. Pastor Siddiki asked her name and what was wrong. After hearing her condition, he said, "Unstrap her."

They removed the straps. He laid his hand on her and asked God to show His power. We thank the Lord for the power of the Holy Spirit.

Suddenly, Kathy jumped up out of her wheelchair. As she began to fall, people moved to catch her, but she said, "Don't touch me. God has me."

Her legs had been severely atrophied — like a small child's legs. Before our eyes, her legs grew out and were restored.

She stood up and began running around the church — doing laps. People were laughing, crying, screaming, cheering — every emotion you can imagine filled the room.

And to this day, she lives. I want to tell you something: when all else fails, never give up on Jesus. No matter what it looks like. No matter what you hear. Never, ever give up on Him — because He never gives up on you. Hallelujah!!!

WHERE ARE YOU GOING WHEN YOU DIE? HEAVEN OR HELL? WHAT YOU NEED TO DO, IS SIMPLY:

- 1. Admit that you are a sinner. Romans 3:23 "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." |
- 2. Repent and ask Him to forgive your sins. Romans 5:8 "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." |
- 3. Confess now that Jesus is Lord of your life. Romans 10:9-10 "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." |

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
“To Everything
 There is a Season...”

By Rev. Madeline Montez Duffany

To everything there is a season, A time for every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, And a time to die; A time to plant, And a time to pluck what is planted; A time to kill, And a time to heal; A time to break down, And a time to build up; A time to weep, And a time to laugh; A time to mourn, And a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, And a time to gather stones; A time to embrace, And a time to refrain from embracing; A time to gain, And a time to lose; A time to keep, And a time to throw away; A time to tear, And a time to sew; A time to keep silence, And a time to speak; A time to love, And a time to hate; A time of war, And a time of peace.

My beloved Brother recently went to his reward in Heaven. He fought the good fight of faith, and now he has run the race and won! We are sojourners here on earth, and we have the promise of eternity with Jesus if we continue to be faithful. Joey Montez was a Street Minister in Santa Monica, CA. He lived where he could, but the winters were cold. We grew up pretty rough, not a lot of luxuries. So, we learned to live without them. My brother appreciated everything that we gave him and exclaimed over simple gestures of kindness. For years, I sent him a new watch on every birthday, and each time we spoke, he said, “It’s so beautiful! I can’t stop staring at it!” Chapter 57. Verse one He lived with us after Mama went to Heaven, and he graduated from the Institute of Ministry at Christian Retreat in Bradenton, Florida. He loved everyone and spoke to everyone about Jesus. His guitar playing and his voice ministered to every passerby. I was privileged to minister with him in a detention center and in children’s homes. He would go anywhere a door opened to give out the gospel. If he had a dollar, he would give it to anyone on the street. When he was in the hospital, he greeted his sisters and every nurse with, “Hello, Darlin’!” My husband and I recently taught Sunday School using Isaiah

Chapter 57. Verse one says, the righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to spare them from evil. Good people pass away; the godly often die before their time. But no one seems to care or wonder why. No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come. What right do we have to question God? God sent His Son, Jesus, to die in our place. He cleansed us from all our sins. If we believe on Him and what He did at the Cross, God promised us life eternal. Mama always taught us

My Precious Child:

There are steps that you must take to come into the depths of the holy of holies, for no heart that is unclean can go there. The first step that you must take to get there is REPENTANCE. You must change your views and purposes to accept the will of God in your inner selves, instead of rejecting it. You must turn away from it and turn to My Word. You must be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, and allow the roots of your thinking and doing to go deep into the soil of My Word!

You must allow the filthy garments of sin to be taken from you and allow My angels to place on your robes of righteousness. Yes, I will cause your iniquity to be passed from you, and I will clothe you with rich apparel. I will change your heart to walk in My ways and keep My charge. I will write My laws upon your heart, and you will never forget them! Yes, I will create in you a clean heart and renew a right and preserving steadfast spirit within you. I will restore to you the joy of My salvation and uphold you with a willing spirit. No,

I will not cast you away from My presence. Child, you know that against me and me only you have sinned and done that which is evil in My sight. So, you must be conscious of your transgressions and acknowledge them, or your sin will be ever before you, and you will not be able to enter into the holy of holies.

The next step you must take that will bring you a little closer to Me is SURRENDER. You must lay all your hopes and dreams, all that you are, and all that you have, and surrender it upon My altar. You must lay your mind, will, and emotions upon My altar. Child, at this point, you will not be left empty. You will be given the Mind of Christ. His wisdom will flow through you. The gifts of My dreams, plans, and purposes will be given to you in its place.

Now, the third step that will take you even closer to Me is to be filled with My Spirit! I will pour out My Spirit upon you! I will fill you through all your being unto all the fullness of God. I will give you the richest measure of My divine presence, and you will become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself.

The fourth step is PRAISE AND WORSHIP. I have said in Psalms 95, "To come and kneel before the Lord your maker" (in reverent praise and supplication. Psalms 96 says to "sing to the Lord a new song, give to the Lord the glory due to His name." Bring an offering and come before Him into His courts. "Have I not said to worship me in the beauty of My holiness."

"Now, when you open your spiritual eyes, you will find yourself in the holy of holies. You will count everything as loss compared to the possession of the priceless privilege of knowing Me, Christ Jesus, your Lord. You will desire to progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Me, perceiving, recognizing, and understanding Me more fully and clearly. You will actually be found and known as in Me. You will know the power outflowing from My resurrection.

In the holy of holies, you will know the fullness of My joy, and you will eat and have your fill from My right hand where there are pleasures forevermore!" Jesus.

Prepare to meet with God. This book is a collection of Inspirations, Visions and Revelations given to me by Holy Spirit a number of years ago, that will take you deep into the heart of God. As you take this journey with me, you will hear Holy Spirit ministering to you. You should feel the presence of God wooing you and touching your heart, filling your life with awesome depths that you have never known before. This is the bridegroom calling unto His bride. Allow Holy Spirit to minister to you through these pages and draw you deep into the depths of Jesus Christ. As you go through the pages, you will be changed from glory to glory, and grow into the fullness of His image and likeness, from chapter to chapter. This is the heart of God, reaching down to man, and the heart of man reaching back up to God. This book is dedicated to the glory of God, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, through the Power of the Holy Spirit.

- By Rhonda Jackson

Holy Spirit- Romans 15:13(NLT) "So I pray that God, who gives you hope, will keep you happy and full of peace as you believe in him. May you overflow with hope through the power of the Holy Spirit." Come, Holy Spirit, I need you. Come in your own gentle way.

Thank you, Holy Spirit, as I draw from your presence each moment of my life. Thank you for renewed hope in this day of weakness.

You fill me again and again with happiness in knowing my Savior! With peace when my heart is overwhelmed.

It is true! God is the giver of every perfect gift that comes down from the Father above! I believe when I can't see that you are working all things for my good.

Thank you, Holy Spirit, as overflowing hope keeps my feet walking in faith; the power of your presence each moment restores my soul.

Beloved, I pray the reality of Holy Spirit in you fills you with happiness and joy! Be filled with peace in his presence as you walk in your valley.

Joy unspeakable and full of glory is yours for the asking! Receive God's gift and smile.

In Jesus name, Holy Spirit.
In Jesus name I live.

Ever smell something and ask the person next to you, "Do you smell that smell?" They look at you like you have three eyes, because they do not smell a thing. Really, you cannot smell what I am smelling? Then you wonder why, since it is so strong.

I have been there, done that, a few times, and never thought much about it. Except for this one time, the smell was so powerful; I was driving home from Church, and I smelled a sweet smell of roses. I did not hug anyone with that same smell. You know that happens when hugging some people, you have their perfume or cologne on you all day. I did not get anointed with oil because some anointing oils have a distinct smell, and this was not it. This was different; it was all over me.

When I got home, I asked Keith, my hubby, to smell me and tell me what you smell. He said he did not smell anything. Which would be true, since I do not wear perfume. Are you sure? I smell a sweet smell of roses all over me, and you are not smelling that smell? This went on for weeks.

I did not realize it at the time, but what I was smelling was God. When Jesus was talking to his disciples about the Comforter, the Holy Ghost that will come after him, He said in John 14:20 (NKJV) At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.

So, when I was lost in Him at Church in deep worship and praise, He was in me. He was covering me with His smell. He was saying, I am here with You.

We ask God to open our eyes, so we can see Him. Open our ears, so we can hear Him, and open our hearts, so we can feel Him. Why not open our noses, so we can smell Him?

It is written that He will never leave us. So let us be aware of the smells around us for a little bit. Because He is here. Let's see if we can smell Him.

My husband has a diesel truck. When someone is too close to his rear bumper, he will step on the gas pedal, and this big black cloud of smoke comes out of his exhaust pipe. He would look over at me with a big smile and say they will not get too close to me again; I just fogged them.

This is what happened to me with God. In the Old Testament, it talks about God coming down and filling the temple with His cloud of glory. I got close to Him when I got deep into worship and..

Never Commit Suicide

By Dr. Samuel Massey,

India | samueljohnmiracle@gmail.com

Loving Jesus, Bless them,
heal them,
Deliver them,
Prosper them.

A 13-year-old girl committed suicide after watching a film whose actor had recently committed suicide. My heart was broken into pieces when I read about this in the Newspaper. While I was praying in the sweet, comforting presence of Jesus. Loving Living Jesus said that He is concerned about the growing number of suicide cases and told me to write the truth about suicide and to send it to all my contacts across India & around the world. So that people can be saved from committing suicide.

There is a well-known bridge in San Francisco, the Golden Gate Bridge. Over the years, many tragic stories have been associated with that place. One account, which has circulated widely and has even been referenced in publications such as Reader's Digest, tells of a young woman who, in despair over conflict with her parents, jumped from the bridge. Her life was lost in a moment of deep emotion and hopelessness.

Whether or not every detail of such stories can be verified, the message they attempt to convey is clear: decisions made in moments of despair carry permanent consequences. Scripture reminds us in Job 14:5 that our days are appointed by God. Every man and woman has a time determined by the Lord. Life is not something to throw away in a moment of pain, because God is the giver of life and holds our times in His hands.

While some retellings of tragic events suggest that those who take their lives remain bound to this earth, we affirm what the Bible clearly teaches: when a person leaves this life, they immediately enter eternity. Hebrews 9:27 tells us, "It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment." There is no returning, no unfinished earthly wandering—only the solemn reality of standing before God.

That is why suicide is not a solution to suffering. It does not solve pain, restore relationships, or rewrite circumstances. Instead, it cuts short the years God may yet have purposed for growth, reconciliation, and blessing.

If you are facing overwhelming problems, do not make a permanent decision based on a temporary trial. Cry out to God. Seek help. Speak with a pastor, a trusted

An adventure into the Supernatural

This is a book with a message. A walk into the supernatural. The story shows how some families have trails of chronic sickness, depression anger, habits of booze and drugs, suicide attempts and tiredness constantly. These are not brought on necessarily by emotions. There is something sinister and evil in the background, it's a battle between angels who fight evil spirits with bolts of lightning and demons fighting for the souls of men. The story follows four families three generations to see how demons are passed from one to another. It reads like a movie.

CHRIS KLINE

How Did Bunnies, Eggs, and the Resurrection Get Mixed into the Same Holiday?

He's Alive News Staff Reporting:

Every spring, the world sees images of rabbits, baskets of colored eggs, candy, and the celebration commonly called "Easter." Yet for Bible-believing Christians, the most sacred event being remembered is the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead—when Christ defeated sin, death, hell, and the grave forever.

This raises an important and serious question for believers:

How did rabbits, eggs, and pagan spring customs become associated with the holiest celebration in the Christian faith?

For those who confess Jesus Christ as Lord, this is not simply a matter of tradition or culture. It is a matter of honoring God in truth.

The Biblical Celebration: Resurrection Day

The Bible teaches clearly that Jesus Christ was crucified, buried, and rose again on the third day. This is the foundation of the Gospel.

Because Jesus lives, believers have forgiveness of sins and the promise of eternal life.

This is why many Christians call this day Resurrection Day rather than "Easter." The focus should be entirely on Christ's victory over death.

The resurrection is not a seasonal tradition—it is the greatest miracle in history and the center of the Christian faith.

The Origin of the Word "Easter"

The word "Easter" itself does not come from the original Greek or Hebrew Scriptures. The New Testament word used for the time of Christ's crucifixion and resurrection is Passover (Greek: pascha).

The English term "Easter" is historically connected with the name of a pagan spring deity called Eostre (also spelled Eastre or Ostara). This connection was recorded by the early English historian Bede, who described a spring festival dedicated to this goddess. Ancient fertility religions often centered on themes of reproduction, sensuality, and nature worship. These rituals were connected to immoral practices that the Bible strongly condemns. For believers who desire to walk in holiness before God, such associations should never be blended with the worship of Christ. Over time, as Christianity spread through Europe, many pagan customs were incorporated into cultural celebrations, and the name "Easter" came to be associated with the commemoration of Christ's resurrection in English-speaking regions.

However, many Christians today are choosing to reject that name and instead honor the day as Resurrection Day, keeping the focus completely on Jesus.

Rabbits and Eggs: Symbols of Pagan Fertility

Two of the most recognizable symbols of modern Easter celebrations are rabbits and eggs.

Neither appears anywhere in the biblical account of Christ's resurrection. Neither do rabbits lay eggs!

Historically, both rabbits and eggs were ancient symbols connected with fertility and reproduction in pagan spring festivals. Because rabbits reproduce rapidly, they were often used as symbols of fertility. Eggs likewise symbolized new life in nature worship traditions.

In later centuries, these symbols were incorporated into European spring festivals, eventually giving rise to the modern "Easter Bunny" and egg-decorating customs.

But it must be clearly stated:

These symbols have no connection whatsoever to the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

A Serious Question for Christians

For those who profess Jesus Christ as Lord, it is important to ask whether practices rooted in pagan fertility worship belong anywhere in the celebration of the resurrection of the Son of God.

The resurrection of Christ is the most sacred moment in the Christian faith. Scripture repeatedly warns believers not to mix the worship of the true God with pagan practices. God's people are called to be separate and holy.

For this reason, many believers have chosen to completely remove the symbols of rabbits, eggs, and other traditions from their observance and instead focus fully on the risen Savior.

The KJV Translation in Acts 12:4

Some people point to the King James Version of the Bible, where Acts 12:4 uses the word "Easter." However, Bible scholars widely recognize that this is a translation error. The Greek word used in that passage is pascha, which correctly means "Passover," not "Easter". Modern translations correctly render it as Passover.

Therefore, the use of the word "Easter" in that verse does not provide a biblical foundation for the term.

Honoring the Risen Christ

The resurrection of Jesus Christ deserves to be honored in purity and truth.

It is the day we remember that:

- Jesus defeated death
- Jesus triumphed over hell and the grave
- Sin was forever defeated

Because of His resurrection, believers have eternal hope.

For this reason, as a Christian, from this point forward, prayerfully consider celebrating Resurrection Day as a day focused entirely on worship, thanksgiving, and proclaiming the victory of the risen Lord.

A Final Thought

Every believer must decide how they will honor this sacred day. But Scripture calls us to worship God in spirit and in truth.

As Resurrection Day approaches this April, may our hearts turn fully toward the One who walked out of the tomb alive forevermore.

Jesus Christ is risen—and that is the only reason we celebrate.

Those who cling to worthless idols forsake faithful love. - Jonah 2:8

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 “To Everything There is a Season...”

...to see the good in nature, and to her, nothing was a “weed”. She loved everything that grew: every bird, flower, insect; the clouds and the sky. She loved animals and people.

From her, we learned to help the needy, although many times we had many needs.

My Papa told me once, “Madeline, even a bug wants to live.” Some people get pleasure out of killing every kind of animal – and each other. This world is not our home! Stop looking down in despair and hopelessness!

God says to look up! Luke 21:28 says, “When these things begin to happen, then look up and lift up your heads for your redemption draweth nigh.”

Psalm 19:1, a Psalm of David: The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.

Here is something my brother, Joey Montez, wrote down that is so beautiful. He was an amazing artist!

“An Artist’s Walk at Day-break”

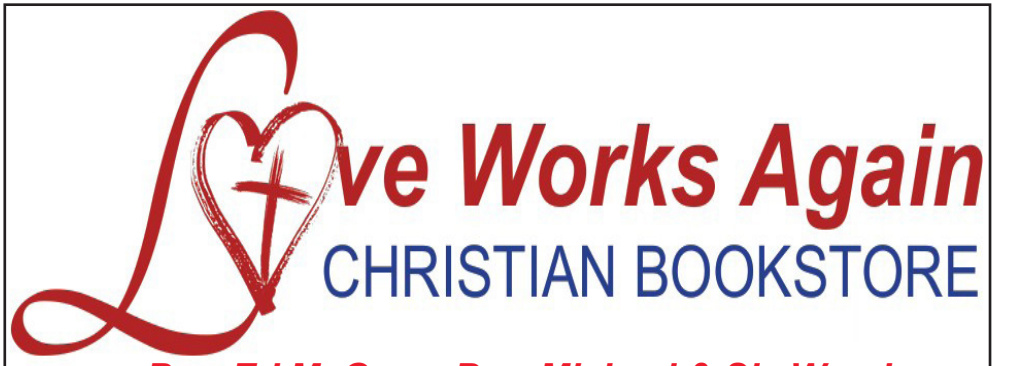

As I walk through the beach at sunrise, as I observe, it it dawns on me that each grain of sand is a masterpiece...

I see a drop of dew on a rose petal and think of the rainbow...by the providence of God, each one made by the same ingredients. The red rose near me speaks many thoughts, but its silences are profound: the rose as a completed book, each petal a pleasant chapter. I see young children eating breakfast at an outdoor restaurant with their parents...laughing, enjoying life. I realize again that innocence and beauty are the same thing. I remember as I awoke this morning asking God, the Heavenly Father, to occupy the same place in my heart that He holds in the universe. Did I realize what a strong prayer that was? He’s in total control of all that exists.

As I look at the incoming tide, I wish to return to my canvas and paint an ocean garden of flowers. I muse, as other artists is motivated by talent or inspiration.

I remember someone saying that there is so much evil in the world, how could there be a God? I want to tell them, “There is so much beauty in the world, how could there not be?” Joe Montez.

Here’s a verse I really love: Ecc.3:8(Amp)

He has made everything beautiful and appropriate in its time. He has also planted eternity [a sense of divine purpose] in the human heart [a mysterious longing which nothing under the sun can satisfy, except God]—yet man cannot find out (comprehend, grasp) what God has done (His overall plan) from the beginning to the end.

SMELL THAT SMELL

praise; He fogged me as His cloud of glory surrounded me. Like a big hug, since I was in Him, and He in me. He left his scent on me. His scent was the sweet smell of roses, which I was smelling, and not like the diesel fumes Keith left behind on the people he fogged.

2 Corinthians 2:14-16 (Amp) But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us spreads and makes evident everywhere the sweet fragrance of the knowledge of Him. 15 For we (all of us) are the sweet fragrance of Christ [which ascends] to God, [discernible both] among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing; 16 to the latter one an aroma from death to death [a fatal, offensive odor], but to the other an aroma from life to life [a vital fragrance, living and fresh]. And who is adequate and sufficiently qualified for these things?

Christ is the only one from whom we can get this sweet-smelling fragrance. As believers, we may offer a repulsive smell to those who refuse Christ, as they smell of death, and at the same time, we smell His life upon our garments, everlasting life.

The smell of death is a part of the discernment that we have with people. The other day, I could smell somebody at work. It was not a good smell, I asked a co-worker if he could smell that smell. He could not. It was strong, and I said you really cannot smell that. Nope. Well, that smell was actually the smell of confusion or chaos. Because this person brings confusion all the time. When he enters the room, it is confusion. When he speaks, it is confusion. When he leaves the room, he leaves his smell of confusion, like Pig Pen of Charlie Brown.

But yet the same co-worker, who could not smell the confusion and chaos, could smell the goodness of God on me. Some days, he tells me that I smell good. But I do not wear perfume. I do not even wash my hair every day, or even every other day. It is God. He was smelling that smell of God on me. Because I pray in my car before I walk into the office. I am fogged with God’s scent.

Remember, there are two ways to change your destiny. One is your choices, and the other is your response to God.

Worldly people are spiritually dirty. This dirt cannot be cleansed by the soap of this world, but only by the precious blood of Jesus Christ. That sweet smell of life. They become a new man, a new creature. By being cleansed, they leave behind everything, not only sin, but what is ailing them, shame, and isolation.

That is exactly what happens to us. When we became believers. Our sins, our dirt, are washed away. Ephesians 5:1 & 2 (NKJV) Therefore be imitators of God as dear children. 2 And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling aroma. That is why we need to spread the good news of the Gospel, Jesus Christ, with love and compassion. Because when love comes from our heart, and our words that come across our lips, become a sweet-smelling aroma into people’s lives.

Proverbs 27:9 (Amplified Bible) Oil and perfume make the heart glad; So does the sweetness of a friend’s counsel that comes from the heart.

Everyone carries a spiritual scent. It is not funk, it is not perfume, it is not cologne, but it is a spiritual odor. You bring it with you everywhere you go, and you leave it behind, and people can catch it, long after you are gone.

When we think about the truth of what our spirit smells like. I pray that it smells like grace, serenity, joy, and truth. May it be the aroma of someone God is shaping on purpose.

Pastor Assaulted in North India

Summary of a report from Christian Daily International

By Pastor Dr. Samuel Massey

I want to share an important report I read recently from Christian Daily International about a believer in India who endured severe persecution for his faith. The article recounts how Pastor Bipin Bihari Naik, a house church pastor in Parjang village in Odisha state, was attacked during a worship service on January 4. According to the report, a large group of men entered the meeting, forcibly removed him, and subjected him to physical abuse. The mob allegedly humiliated him publicly and attempted to coerce him into participating in Hindu religious rituals. When he refused, the assault intensified. Pastor Naik reportedly sustained significant injuries, including damage affecting his hearing. The report further states that Pastor Naik's wife and children witnessed part of the attack and fled to seek help from local police. Assistance was delayed, and only after several hours was he rescued. With the help of Christian leaders, a formal complaint was eventually filed. Because of ongoing threats, Pastor Naik and his family have reportedly relocated to a safer, undisclosed location. We are reminded that while many of us worship freely, countless believers around the world face hostility and violence for the name of Jesus Christ. Scripture tells us, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (2 Timothy 3:12). Yet we also know the Lord promises never to leave nor forsake His people (Hebrews 13:5). For readers who wish to review the full original report, Christian Daily International has published the complete article, ted believer, or a counselor. The Lord who appoints our days also sustains us through them. Life is precious. Hold fast to it, trusting that the God who numbers your days walks with you through each one. In moments of deep trouble, do not turn to thoughts of harming yourself. Saying, "I will hang myself" or "I will take poison" is not the answer. What is truly gained by that? It does not resolve the problem — it only creates greater loss. There is hope, even in this moment. You may cry, you may mourn, you may lament, but you can never get back into your body. In simple words, suicide will ultimately lead to hell, a place of everlasting, eternal pain, sorrow, a lake of fire, where there will be continuous weeping and gnashing of teeth. Nobody can help you there. Therefore, never commit Suicide! Loving Jesus compelled me to write this despite my busy schedule. 2Cor 5:14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: Now the responsibility lies with you. Loving Jesus Tender Heart will be gladdened when you forward this very important message to your friends and family, many of whom are not aware of it. Convey the love and hope of Jesus to those who are disappointed, depressed, discouraged, disheartened, and frustrated. Let's spread this message around the World. Jesus says, "Come to Me; I will wipe away your tears." Loving Living Jesus loves Everyone in this World irrespective of caste, creed, or religion. He loves you deeply & dearly. He died and shed His Blood for everyone. He is Full of Love, Compassion, Power to Solve All Your Problems. Jesus Christ will Solve All your Problems. No need to commit Suicide. America's 250th Birthday: Rededicating Our Nation to God

In 2026, the United States will celebrate a historic milestone—the 250th anniversary of our nation's founding. Since July 4, 1776, America has experienced two and a half centuries of freedom, opportunity, and influence around the world.

As the nation prepares for this remarkable birthday, President Donald Trump has announced plans not only for national celebrations but also for a rededication, calling Americans to return to the nation's spiritual roots.

A National Call to Prayer
During the National Prayer Breakfast, President Trump announced that a major national prayer gathering will be held on May 17, 2026, on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. The purpose of this event is to pray for the nation and to “rededicate America as one nation under God.”

This special event is being described as a National Jubilee of Prayer, Praise, and Thanksgiving, where Americans will gather to thank God for His blessings on the nation and seek His guidance for the future.

The call has also encouraged churches, families, and prayer groups across the country to begin meeting regularly to pray for America as the nation approaches this historic anniversary.

Remembering God's Hand in America

Throughout America's history, leaders have often recognized the importance of faith and prayer. From the prayers of the Continental Congress to national days of fasting proclaimed by early presidents, the nation's founders frequently acknowledged God's providence.

The upcoming 250th anniversary provides an opportunity not only to celebrate the past but also to seek God's direction for the next 250 years.

Many faith leaders believe this moment could become a time of spiritual renewal, reminding Americans that true freedom comes from God.

Celebrations Across the Nation

The 250th anniversary, sometimes called the Semiquincentennial, will include numerous national events throughout 2026. These celebrations will highlight America's history, honor the sacrifices of past generations, and inspire future generations to cherish liberty. But for many believers, the most meaningful aspect of the celebration will be the call to prayer and thanksgiving.

A Call for Christians to Pray

As this historic anniversary approaches, Christians across the nation are encouraged to pray for:

- Spiritual renewal in America
- Wisdom for national leaders
- Protection and unity for the country
- A return to faith and biblical values

Scripture reminds us in 2 Chronicles 7:14 “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

Looking Ahead

America's 250th birthday is more than a national celebration—it is an opportunity for reflection, gratitude, and prayer.

As believers look toward this historic moment, many are praying that God will pour out His blessing on the nation and guide America into a future marked by faith, freedom, and righteousness.

May this anniversary become not only a celebration of the past, but a rededication of the nation to the Lord for generations to come.

I Smuggled Bibles and Booklets into China

(Name withheld for safety reasons)

John 15:8 — “Herein is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; so shall you be my disciples.”

One Resurrection Sunday (most refer to as Easter), with the audience quiet after worship, I gave this prophecy in church. The pastor was amazed and said, “That is my Scripture from the message today,” and added, “So shall you be my disciples.” Other prophecies led me to ask, “Are you speaking to me, Lord, about going to other countries?”

While praying, the Lord said, “Yes — go to China.” (I was about 40 years old.)

Never having done anything like this before, I began working with a Hong Kong ministry that was already going into China. Soon, I went in on my own with 80 pounds of Bibles in 2 suitcases. I had about a quarter-mile walk to the customs entrance. The Lord had me fast, knowing I needed more of His power. The guard stopped me to look at my passport, thinking Bibles could be in them. He could not say, “Open your bags,” as the power of the Lord was on him, and I was new to entering the country.

A year or more later, a businessman asked me to carry in Bibles for a pastor he knew there. I had 20 Bibles and 200 Scripture booklets (48-page Topical booklets from World Missionary Press). I was waiting in my car at a nearby restaurant with three hours before airport check-in, enjoying my comfy seats, when the Spirit pulled back inside me, prompting me to LEAVE. Without arguing, I then left them at check-in.

At the arrival city in China, many people were in line having their bags scanned. Praying if I should wait until the guard leaves when my bags come up, the Lord inwardly again pulled back, no, get in line. Four people were in front of me. The first two young men had their bags scanned. Two older women were next, but then the guard walked away to get a drink. The two ladies walked around the scanner, and I simply followed them and got my Bibles through to the pastor.

Because I had checked in early, my bags had been placed in the back of the plane’s hold and came off last upon arrival. The Lord knew that if I had arrived later, my bags would come off earlier, and I would have been with those getting scanned and Bibles stopped.

Another year, my friend and I were staying in China near a huge park. I had a warning vision — a “dark cannon” vision — warning not to go there, as it was too open. So we went down a side street near shops instead, where people eagerly received the booklets.

Near Beijing, in another city with open market shops, the Lord had warned me by a vision of a “dark telephone”. As we handed out booklets, a man reached into our bag, grabbed two handfuls, and yelled “Jesus” in Chinese. I quickly grabbed his hand, pulled it away, and we left the area. Later, we began handing them out again. I looked to my left and saw a man holding a telephone. Due to the vision, I stopped giving them out, but my partner continued. When I looked back at him, a plain-clothes policeman had him by the arm. I asked why, and he showed his badge. We were taken to a local police station.

We sat on a bench in a room waiting. I felt the power of the Lord come over me. I stood up and said loudly, “Why are we being held? We have done nothing wrong.” Immediately, all the lights in the building went out. I sat down.

Later, an English-speaking officer questioned us and asked when we were leaving. I said, “Tomorrow — flight to Hong Kong.” His face dropped, clearly disappointed, as he had wanted to keep us overnight. Instead, he let us go. Praise the Lord!

Another year, we went out after dark and distributed booklets all night, placing them at the doors of small homes and near homeless people sleeping. We were out until 4:00 a.m. My guide was concerned the hotel staff would see us coming back in, but when we entered through the main door, everyone was asleep. We flew out later that morning before any trouble could arise.

Over four years with several others helping, approximately 10,000 forty-eight-page Scripture booklets were distributed. Isaiah 58:10-11 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday: And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

That He did. Glory to His name. If you reach out, He will guide you too!

Name withheld for safety reasons.

A Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the courage of those who carry Your Word into difficult and restricted places. We ask for Your continued protection over this servant and all who labor to spread the Gospel where it is not freely welcomed. Shield them from harm, grant them wisdom and discernment, and let Your Word bear much fruit. Strengthen believers in China and in every nation where following Christ comes at great cost. May Your Spirit guide them continually, and may Your truth continue to go forth in power.

In Jesus’ name, Amen.
