"Blessed by Heaven's Best"

By Charlene Townsley

When I was around 57 years old, I was having some complications with my intestines, and I never told my husband Cliff anything about it, or anyone, to be exact. As for being a nurse, I saw signs of what would be cancerous. Still never said a word. Just kept trusting God with all my heart, I never even feared or worried. But I had a peace within me.

My Doctor at the time knew and didn't like it at all and said to get a colonoscopy. I never had one in my entire life!! I didn't like the idea at all because of things I knew or heard all the years in the medical field. However, if God was to get the glory, I knew I would need to see the Doctor for this.

I didn't know who, but I was in the ER, and a doctor came up to me and told me in my ear, "I would get, so and so, she's the best, but do not tell anyone I told you. I could get in trouble". I didn't even know him, hadn't seen him before, or knew where he came from!

I contacted the Doctor and made an appointment, and she ran some tests and said, "You have all the signs of cancer, and we need to get you in ASAP"! So, I did, but I told her I don't have it. God has got me covered. And by Faith, I do not have cancer nor will I receive it. Mind you, I've never met her in my life, a total stranger!

That day I went home, I didn't tell Cliff right away, I was praying. So, I told Cliff, no one else, not my mother, or children. We didn't want to tell anyone because of negative talk, unbelief, or not being strong Christians. We stayed in the word as well as Faith.

I went in for the procedure, and when she was done, she came to see me in recovery and told me, "Well, you were right, you absolutely have no cancer and not so much as a polyp! To have never had a colonoscopy and found nothing!! She said, "Well, your God came through". So, hallelujah to God goes the glory. No issues like that ever since then.

I am now 66 years old, and for almost a year, my lab work has not been coming back good. It's with my white blood count. For almost a year now, my number has been spiking to a concerning level. My Doctor told me there is something very wrong, and it's getting higher, so every 2 months he has me get blood work done to keep an eye on the numbers.

There is an infection in my body, and from running tests, they said it looks like cancer,

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee; How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

I recall my Mother singing hymns in church, and I'm so grateful that I learned so many of them in my youth. God told me to write about praise and worship – just this evening! He said to ask them if they are singing from their souls, the deep part of us, not the superficial repetition (void of the Holy Spirit and anointing) that characterizes so many "praise" songs today. My husband took my phone and said to it, "Al, make me a praise song." It did. Some meaningless words and music were instantly created and played. It sounded just like the noisy, soulless songs that pass for praise to our God in many churches today. I have always noticed that secular songs are more creative than many Christian songs. It is so disappointing to go to some churches where the praise is so uninspiring that people just sit and wait in their seats until it's over... unsmiling, bored faces. Whatever happened to TRUE Praise and Worship? It seems that the people who write the new songs can't think of enough lyrics, so they keep repeating the same phrases over and over. Are they in competition with other writers and singers for money? Notoriety? There is no depth of meaning in the words. And a lot of them are about me, me, poor me – not God. Some churches require you to stand up during praise, but that's not because you feel the Holy Spirit, but because you will feel embarrassed. The same with the offering: "Let's all hold up our envelope..." More embarrassment if you don't have money to give. You hold up an empty envelope and wave it around. How sad. I know the difference in Spirit-filled praise and worship. It's because I have personally felt the "weight of God's Glory" coming down. It is very hard to stand in His presence when this happens. You are uninhibited in praise to God. Your focus is on Him alone, not yourself, your Pastor, your neighbor. God is telling us something here today. He is not a child who needs "baby" songs. He wants us to give Him heartfelt, soul-deep praise and worship. Then, miracles and healings take place, because He inhabits the praises of His people. Psalm 22:3. God is on His throne. God is present and in control. We are expressing absolute trust in God. We are asking Him to heal us, to make a way where there is no way in the natural. We need deliverance: chains of depression, anxiety, fear, and sick-.. Continued Page: 11

Pray in the Spirit at All Times and You Will Not Fulfill the Lusts of the Flesh

By Sarah Jansson | Apostolic/Prophetic Ministry

Walk in honesty and humility, and in the fruit of the Spirit towards one another, especially in the body of Christ. The Word says how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. Great miracles and manifestations of the Holy Spirit were done when genuine unity of Spirit was manifested in the book of Acts — that is genuine unity from the heart. God will not honor those who use charismatic manipulation to claw their way to the top. The day will come when God will expose them. God knows the thoughts and intents of your heart, and the day is coming when all will be exposed by the Spirit of the Lord.

Love the sinner, love the person, hate the sin. It is the unmet needs, the undealt-with issues, and the unhealed hurts within people that cause them to do the hurtful things they do. Sometimes they do not even realize it. Know that you are not dealing with flesh and blood, but with powers and principalities and spiritual wickedness in darkness.

But know that the Lord has come to destroy every work of the enemy, and it is already done by the blood of the Lamb. All we have to do is receive it by faith. The Word tells us to pray for one another in the spirit of love and wisdom by the Spirit, as the Spirit of the Lord knows how to pray according to the Father's will.

Your greatest weapon is the Word of God in your mouth, in faith, and with the authority of the Holy Spirit who lives within you! Go not by what you see, hear, or feel, but by the Word of God in your heart and in your mouth — you can't lose! The Word of God is a two-edged sword, alive, active, and sharp, and prosperous in what we send it to do when sent with faith and authority in who you are in Christ Jesus.

FEAR NOT!

"For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind." (2 Timothy 1:7)

"Do not be afraid; only believe." (Mark 5:36)

"The Lord is our light and our salvation — so why should we be afraid? The Lord is our fortress, protecting us from danger, so why should we tremble?" (Psalm 27:1)

You have overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of your testimony (Revelation 12:11). Remember, you have authority over all manner of evil, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. No weapon formed against you shall prosper; no evil shall befall you, nor any plague come near your dwelling (Psalm 91). He has given His angels charge over you in all your ways (Psalm 91). Declare the Word of God over your life, your family, and your situations.

THERE IS A NAME TO CALL UPON THAT IS ABOVE ALL YOUR PROBLEMS, CIRCUMSTANCES, AND SITUATIONS TODAY.

There is a name above every name that is named — above every sickness, disease, attack, and assignment of the enemy; strong enough to break every chain, shackle, and bondage that has you bound. That name is the name of Jesus Christ: Yeshua, Adonai (Master and Lord), Yah, Elohim the Faithful One, the Resurrection, the Way, the Truth, the Light, and the Life of man. There is no other name in heaven and on earth that is more powerful! He already said, "It is finished," and the Faithful One is coming soon!

Your weapons against the attacks of the enemy: the Name, the Word, and the Blood of the Lamb; the power of the Holy Spirit within you; praise, worship, and thanksgiving.

Today, put on the garments of praise and the oil of joy. Clothe yourself with the blood of Jesus Christ. Speak out the name that is above every name. Keep the Word on your lips. Cover yourself and your family with the blood of Yeshua. Let your light shine.

May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding keep your heart and mind in Christ Jesus today. Focus on all that is good, lovely, kind, and of a good report.

May the Word of God dwell in you richly in all wisdom, in your heart and in your mouth. Keep your eyes focused on Jesus, the Author and Finisher of your faith. He loves you and He always will.

Humble yourself under the mighty hand of God, and in due season He will lift you up. Never are the righteous forsaken. Man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart. Out of the heart flow the issues of life. Those who make themselves first will be last, and the last first in God's eyes. God is not mocked — that which a man sows, he shall also...

Dead-Romans 6:10 (amp) "For by the death He died, He died to sin (ending His relation to it) once for all; and the life that He lives, He is living to God (in unbroken fellowship with Him)."

Thank you, Jesus, that your death broke my relationship to sin. You became sin who knew no sin! Your death broke the power of sin over my life. Jesus, you live in unbroken fellowship with the Father, therefore I am privileged to live the same. I choose life in Christ Jesus over sin and death.

I do not willingly make a habit of sin. I died with Christ, and I believe I shall also live with Him.

Thank you, Jesus, for the blood that gives me life as I daily choose to live in you and not yield to sin.

I will guard my heart that I only speak of the cross of Christ and the glory of your presence! I am dead to sin that no longer comes between my relationship to God!

Redemption is a powerful path to live in right relationship with Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Thank you. Beloved, I pray you choose redemption road today. You are dead to sin and alive to Christ! You have the power of His name! The power of the word!

I decree you are a victorious bride and not a victim of sin anymore. Reckon yourself dead to sin and alive in Christ! In Jesus name. Dead. In Jesus name I live.

Were the Mormons involved in The Chosen?

Who's Behind What You're Watching?

A Call for Discernment in Christian Media

- By He's Alive News Staff

Mark 4:9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

In today's world, Christian films and Bible-based series are more available than ever before. Many of them are well-produced, engaging, and can even stir a deeper interest in the life of Jesus and the Word of God.

But as believers, there is an important question we should not overlook:

Who is behind the message we are watching?

Why It Matters

Movies and television are powerful. What we see and hear does more than entertain—it shapes how we think, how we imagine, and even how we interpret Scripture.

A well-produced biblical drama can leave lasting impressions in our minds.

Over time, those images can become so familiar that we begin to remember the scene instead of the Scripture. This is why discernment is so important.

The Bible reminds us that truth comes from God—not from human interpretation alone. Scripture is not meant to be reshaped by personal views or creative storytelling.

A Recent Example

A widely known series like The Chosen has reached millions of viewers worldwide and helped bring attention to the life and ministry of Jesus.

In its earlier years, the project was distributed through Angel Studios. It is worth noting that the owners of this company are members of the Mormon faith. In recent developments, creator Dallas Jenkins has moved the series in a different direction, citing contractual differences as the reason for the separation.

While that decision was based on business matters, it still highlights an important reality: the beliefs and perspectives of those involved behind the scenes can influence what is presented on the screen.

The Influence of Belief Systems

It is very difficult—if not impossible—to produce a biblical drama without some level of personal belief shaping the story.

Even small additions, interpretations, or dramatizations can subtly influence how viewers understand Scripture. While these may not always be intentional, they can still affect how truth is perceived.

It is often in the subtle differences where seeds of error can be planted. When biblical accounts are portrayed with added, ad-libbed drama—details not actually found in Scripture but inserted

God, Once Revealed to A Man of God, The Agony of Jesus in The Garden of Gethsemane in A Vision. On One Side, His Disciples Were Slumbering. Jesus was Praying. His Sweat Like Drops of Blood Falling Down. On the other side, At A Distance,

Loving Jesus,
Bless them,
heal them,
Deliver them,
Prosper them.

Was Standing Satan Anxiously Expecting That Jesus Would Refuse to go to the Cross, For Fear of Death. But when Jesus, in the End, After A Struggle, subdued Himself to His Father's Will, saying "O My Father...Not As I Will, But as You Will" (Matthew 26:39), Satan Trembled And Dejectedly Lamented In Anguish, "Alas! I Have Lost; I Have Lost"

Blood Pressure Healed Testimony of Healing:

I was preaching in a Church, loving Jesus told me to preach about his suffering in the Garden of Gethsemane, how Jesus carried upon himself all the sorrows, pain, agony, blood pressure of all the people of the whole world, and being in great agony, exceedingly sorrowful his sweat became great drops of blood and Jesus will Heal every blood pressure patient, I prayed for healing in the mighty wonderful healing name of Jesus, after few days I again went to that church, one sister came and with great joy told she was healed from blood pressure she was suffering with for the last 6 months, every day she will be taking medicine but no improvement but that Sunday as I prayed to Jesus, Jesus healed her, from that moment her blood pressure is normal and she has not taken any medicine from that day. Loving Healing Jesus healed her completely. Alleluia! Praise the Lord! Thank you, Jesus!!! Glory!!!!

An adventure into the Supernatural

This is a book with a message. A walk into the supernatural. The story shows how some families have trails of chronic sickness, depression anger, habits of booze and drugs, suicide attempts and tiredness constantly. These are not brought on necessarily by emotions. There is something sinister and evil in the background, it's a battle between angels who fight evil spirits with bolts of lightning and demons fighting for the souls of men. The story follows four families three generations to see how demons are passed from one to another. It reads like a movie.

Healing Is Yours: Whose Report Will You Believe?

By He's Alive News Staff

What do you do when a doctor looks you in the eye and says, "You have three months to live"?

That was the powerful question addressed in a recent episode of Healing Is Yours with Pastors Chuck and Arlyn Kennedy—a question that strikes at the heart of faith for many believers: Why is it harder to believe God's Word that I am healed than to believe a doctor's report that I am dying?

This is not just a theological discussion. It is a real-life battle—one that countless people face when confronted with a serious diagnosis. And as the program revealed, the struggle often comes down to one simple but profound truth: whose report will you believe?

The Power of Authority and Perception

One reason the doctor's report feels so powerful is that it comes from a recognized authority. A trained professional, backed by years of education and medical data, delivers a diagnosis that seems concrete and undeniable. Add to that physical symptoms and test results, and the report becomes even more convincing.

As discussed in the program, this creates an internal conflict. The mind says, "This must be true," while the Word of God declares something entirely different: healing, life, and restoration.

Scripture reminds us in Titus 1:2 that God "cannot lie." If God's Word says you are healed, then that truth stands above every natural report. Yet believing it can feel difficult when everything seen and felt says otherwise.

Faith Operates Beyond the Senses

A key insight shared during the discussion is that human beings naturally trust what they can see, hear, and feel. Medical diagnoses engage all three. But faith operates in a different realm—the unseen.

As one pastor shared during the broadcast, "What we see is only half the truth. The whole truth is revealed by God's Word."

This is why Scripture calls believers to walk by faith, not by sight. Faith is not denial of reality—it is alignment with the higher reality, God's Word. It is choosing to believe that God's Word is truer than circumstances, symptoms, or statistics.

The Role of Words and Belief

Another powerful theme from the teaching is the importance of what we believe and speak. Words are not empty—they carry life or death.

When a negative report is received first, it can take root in the mind and become dominant. But that report can be replaced. As one testimony shared during the program revealed, a woman who was given a life expectancy of nine months chose instead to stand on God's Word—and today she is alive, healed, and testifying.

The turning point came when she made a decision: Which report would she believe?

That decision is crucial. Faith is not automatic—it is a choice. And once that choice is made, it must be reinforced through speaking, thinking, and meditating on God's promises.

Data vs. Divine Truth

An eye-opening perspective shared by Pastor Kennedy is that medical predictions are based on historical data—statistics gathered from people who have faced similar conditions.

But here's the key: that data most often is based on people who did not know or apply the Word of God.

Believers, especially those who actively stand in faith, do not fit into that same category. They are operating under a different covenant, a different authority, and a different expectation.

In other words, the "database" used to predict outcomes does not account for the power of faith, prayer, and God's promises.

And there is growing evidence—even within the medical field—of physicians who recognize this. One such example shared in the program was a Christian oncologist who refuses to "decree death" over patients, instead choosing to speak life and encourage hope. The result? Remarkably high survival rates and powerful testimonies of healing.

Hope Is Essential

Perhaps one of the most important takeaways is this: hope must be protected.

When a person is told they are going to die, hope can be the first casualty. Without hope, many simply give up. But with hope, faith goes into action.

God's Word provides that hope and faith. It declares life, healing, and victory. And even in the face of the worst reports, that hope can be reignited, with the end result that faith prevails.

A Choice That Changes Everything

Ultimately, the message of Healing Is Yours is clear: you have a choice.

You can accept the report of the world, or you can stand on the report of the Lord. Those who shared testimonies in the broadcast—people who faced dire diagnoses—made a "quality decision" to believe God's Word above all else. Not because it was easy, but because they were convinced that God cannot lie. And that decision made all the difference.

Final Charge Dismissed Against David Daleiden for Exposing Planned Parenthood Aborted Baby Part Sales

Steven Ertelt | Washington, DC | LifeNews.com

David Daleiden

“As promised, the final charge has been DISMISSED and the case completely expunged—after a couple months’ administrative delay, and a truly bizarre last-minute ‘April Fool’s’ attempt by @PPFA and @NatAbortionFed to overturn the State’s agreement,” he wrote.

HELP LIFENEWS SAVE BABIES FROM ABORTION! Please help LifeNews.com with a donation!

The dismissal fulfills the terms of a January 2025 settlement in which California dropped all charges against Daleiden and undercover reporter Sandra Merritt. The agreement required no jail time, no fines, no admission of wrongdoing and no probation.

In exchange, the pair entered a “no contest” plea to a single misdemeanor video-recording charge, which was to be entered as a judgment in six to 12 months, then converted to a “not guilty” plea, dismissed and expunged. Seven of the original 14 charges had previously been dismissed for lack of probable cause.

The prosecution began under then-California Attorney General Kamala Harris after Daleiden’s 2015 videos were released. In the January 2025 statement marking the initial settlement, Daleiden described the case as political lawfare.

The final bogus criminal charge against David Daleiden has been dismissed and his case completely expunged. It’s the final step in a victory for the pro-life advocate who exposed Planned Parenthood and the abortion industry for selling the body parts of aborted babies.

The dismissal ends a nearly decade-long Democrat-led prosecution launched to silence his undercover videos that exposed Planned Parenthood’s grisly aborted baby parts trade. Daleiden, founder and president of the Center for Medical Progress, announced the victory Thursday on X.

Miracles Still Happen: Real-Life Testimonies of Healing and Faith

By He's Alive News Staff

In a powerful recent broadcast of God Is Real, viewers were encouraged and stirred by unforgettable testimonies shared by Evangelist Joan Pearce and Robin Art—accounts that remind us that God is still moving, healing, and transforming lives today. These were not distant stories from long ago. These were present-day encounters—ordinary people witnessing the extraordinary power of God in deeply personal ways.

A Healing in the House of God

During a recent church service, Evangelist Joan Pearce prayed for individuals she had never met before. Without prior knowledge of their conditions, she spoke directly into their lives with such accuracy that even their pastor was amazed.

One woman testified afterward that she received healing at that very moment of prayer—something deeply personal known only to her and God. As she later shared, it was undeniable evidence that the Holy Spirit had touched her life.

Moments like these serve as reminders that God sees, knows, and responds—often in ways that surpass human understanding.

From Cancer to Wholeness

Another remarkable testimony came from a woman who had been diagnosed with bone cancer—a condition often viewed as terminal. After receiving prayer, she experienced a supernatural encounter, describing a vision of bright lights as she rested under the power of God.

What followed was nothing short of miraculous: she was healed.

For someone new to this kind of faith environment, the experience was life-changing. It revealed that healing is not reserved for a select few—it is available to anyone willing to believe.

Warts Gone Instantly

One woman shared a testimony that might seem small compared to others—but it was no less powerful.

She had suffered from large warts covering her hands. After receiving prayer, she later noticed something astonishing: every single wart had completely disappeared.

No treatment. No gradual improvement. Just instant healing.

These “notable miracles,” as Joan described them, demonstrate that God cares about every detail of our lives—big or small.

A Child's Faith Brings Healing

Perhaps one of the most touching testimonies involved a young girl in the Philippines whose faith sparked a miracle.

The child ran to Joan, insisting she come pray for her grandmother, who had been bedridden for six years. As they walked to the small home, the girl boldly declared to everyone along the way, “My grandma is going to walk!”

Inside the home, after sharing Scripture and building faith, Joan helped the frail woman sit up. Then came the moment of truth.

“Rise and walk,” she said in the name of Jesus.

At first, the woman was unsteady. But step by step, strength returned. Soon she was walking across the room—completely healed.

The room erupted in celebration.

This miracle wasn't just about healing—it was about the power of child like faith that refuses to doubt.

A Creative Miracle: Healing a Growth

In another service, Joan described seeing inside a man's body—like looking at a transparent image. She saw a growth and led by the Holy Spirit, prayed without even touching him.

As she did, she felt what she described as “electricity” flowing between her hands. The man fell under the power of God, and the growth was gone.

This moment highlights a key truth: God's methods are not limited by human understanding. When believers yield to the Holy Spirit, the impossible becomes possible.

Faith in Action: A Dog Healed

Robin Art shared a testimony that challenges the idea that miracles only happen in church settings.

After seeing a guinea pig healed through prayer, she felt prompted to pray for a neighbor's dog that was blind, paralyzed, and near death. At first, nothing seemed to happen.

But she chose to speak life instead of death.

Over the next few days, the dog began to recover—first moving slightly, then seeing, then walking, and finally running and playing again.

What began as a hesitant act of obedience became a powerful testimony of God's compassion and power—even over creation.

A Simple Truth: Step Out in Faith

Throughout the program, one message rang clear: you don't need perfect faith, you just need to act on the faith you have.

Even faith as small as a mustard seed can open the door for miracles when combined with obedience to God's voice.

As Joan emphasized, it is not about striving or performance. It is about listening to the Holy Spirit, stepping out boldly, and trusting God to do the rest.

The Greatest Miracle of All

While physical healing is powerful, the broadcast concluded with a reminder of the greatest miracle: a transformed life through Jesus Christ.

When a person turns to Him, finds forgiveness, and begins a relationship with God—that is the miracle that lasts for eternity.

The Power of Your Testimony

Why We Share

By He's Alive News Staff

For over 13 years, He's Alive News has been dedicated to one powerful mission: sharing real testimonies of a real God.

From every walk of life, many denominations, and all across the world, we have published story after story of lives transformed by the hand of God. But why does this matter so much?

Because God Himself places great importance on your testimony.

Scripture tells us in John 3:33 that when we receive and share His testimony, we declare that God is true. Your story is not just personal—it is a witness to the truth of who God is.

In Revelation 12:11, we see that testimonies are not optional; they are weapons of victory. The enemy is overcome in your individual life by your testimony of what Jesus has done in you.

And then we are given a deeper revelation in Revelation 19:10. This means that every time you share what Jesus has done, you are making a prophetic declaration of who Jesus is to you right now. Your testimony releases faith, declaring life where there was death, victory where there was defeat! This is what the church is built on, according to Matt 16:18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Even in Hebrews 11:5, we learn that a testimony reflects a life that honors the Lord. Your testimony is evidence of a relationship with Him.

And we are encouraged in 2 Timothy 1:8 to never be ashamed of what God has done. Your story matters—no matter how big or small it may seem.

The Word also reminds us in Psalm 19:7 that testimonies carry wisdom, truth, and transformation for those who hear them.

Even the Ark in the Old Testament was called the Ark of the Testimony—set apart as holy unto the Lord. That shows us something profound:

Testimony is sacred to God. A Living God, Still Moving Today

We share testimonies because they reveal something the world desperately needs to see:

God is alive. God is real. And He is still working miracles today.

As it is written in Hebrews 13:8, He has not changed. The same God who healed, delivered, and restored in the Bible is doing it right now—in everyday people's lives.

Every testimony we publish is proof of that truth.

Your Testimony Matters Here is something many people don't realize:

Every Christian has a testimony.

You may think your story is too simple.

You may think it's not dramatic enough.

You may think it doesn't matter.

But to someone else, it could be everything.

Your testimony is:

- A light to someone in darkness
- Hope to someone ready to give up
- Proof that God still moves
- A seed that can change a life forever

God's Word never returns void—it accomplishes exactly what He sends it to do. When you share your testimony, you are releasing something powerful into the lives of others.

Don't Keep It In

There are people waiting—right now—for the very story you are holding onto.

Don't let fear, doubt, or procrastination silence what God has done in you.

You don't need to be a writer.

You don't need perfect words.

Just share the facts, and we will help turn your testimony into a published article that can reach others.

Be the Overcomer You Already Are

God is looking for willing, obedient people—those who will simply say, "Here is what the Lord has done for me."

When you share your testimony, you step into the very truth of Scripture:

You are an overcomer.

And your story may be the very thing that helps someone else overcome, too.

Submit Your Testimony Today

Don't wait. Someone needs to hear what God has done in your life.

Pray in the Spirit at All Times and You Will Not Fulfill the Lusts of the Flesh

Seek first His Kingdom and His righteousness. Walk in the ways of His righteousness and uprightness of heart, always asking yourself: W.W.J.D. — What Would Jesus Do? Submit yourself to God, resist the devil, and he shall flee.

The Spiritual Realm is real! Know your adversary. You are not dealing with flesh and blood but with powers and principalities and spiritual wickedness in darkness. But even the enemy, though he tries hard with his deceits and tactics, cannot stand up against the power of Almighty God! Be strong in the Lord — not in your own strength—but in the power and strength of the Lord. Be empowered through your union, your relationship, your communion, and your oneness with Him. Receive His strength, which lives in your inner man by His Holy Spirit who lives within you — the strength that His boundless might provides.

Put on God's whole armor, and with it you will successfully stand up against all the strategies and deceits of the devil, for you are not dealing with people but with the powers of darkness. So, with God's complete armor on, you will be able to resist and stand. Resist and stand. Stand, holding your ground. Tighten around you the Word of God.

Place on your feet the Gospel of Peace — God's peace. Lift up the shield of faith. Take up and stand in your salvation, your saving faith and testimony in Jesus. Let the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, come out of your inner man as a two-edged sword, alive, active, and sharp.

At all times, everywhere, pray in the Spirit, for the Holy Spirit within you knows what to pray and how to bring it forth to accomplish His will, and He knows the heart and mind of the Father.

This is the season of examining one's heart — a season of repentance and allowing the Holy Spirit to bring you into His newness of life and the depths of His holy presence, making all things new in your life, for the glory of God.

Whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of a good report — if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things. In Jesus' name.

THE WHITE HOUSE
PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP

WASHINGTON, April 3, 2026 /Christian News-wire/ — The White House releases the following statement by the President of the United States of America:

This Easter Sunday, the First Lady and I join with Christians all across our Nation and around the world in rejoicing in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, whose triumph over sin and victory over death secured the promise of redemption and the hope of eternal life for all who believe in Him as Lord and Savior.

Sunday, we proclaim with joy that Christ has risen, a new creation has been ushered in, and evil and death have been conquered forever through the unmatched power of God's sacrificial love.

When Jesus Christ rose from His earthly tomb on Easter morning, He restored our grace, washed our sins, and reconciled humanity with God—fulfilling the ancient prophecy that "He was pierced for our sins, crushed for our iniquity ... by His wounds we were healed." His suffering won our victory, His love brings us life, and His Resurrection is our everlasting hope.

As we rejoice in this Easter season, we are reminded that the life of Jesus Christ and the truths of the Gospel have inspired our way of life and our national identity for 250 years. From the Christian patriots who won and secured our liberty on the battlefield and every generation since, the love of Christ has unfailingly guided our Nation through calm waters and dark storms.

We pray that this celebra-

"Death is swallowed up in victory." Above all, we echo with tremendous joy those sacred words that have given life, hope, and purpose to Christians for thousands of years: He is risen.

"Blessed by Heaven's Best"

From Page 1 ...and that infection in the body is serious and can be fatal. I knew that, but would never confess it and never will.

So, I was set up with an ENT, a Hematologist/Cancer Doctor, and a lung doctor. The hematologist wanted to keep an eye on my numbers as well and said, "If it gets to 18, then you will have to come and see me so we can start cancer treatments. Even then, he said, " I can do a biopsy now in your bone marrow". I said, no Thank you!

So, my number was 17;

normal is 10.8. So today, 3/25/26, was my appointment with my doctor, as I had labs done, and this was my follow-up two days later. This was a very, very important visit, as this would tell all. Cliff was with me, as this is his primary Doctor as well.

He told us my lab results were so good, and he was happy! Before he even told us the results, he wanted to let us know that we are right about trusting the lord and praying, that prayer works, and my results prove they do! My labs were great and beautiful! Everything was not only normal, but my cholesterol got an A+. He said my white blood cell count was 17 and is down to 11.5; remember, normal is 10.8!

We were so happy, and the Doctor was too. He said we were praying patients and definitely know what power of prayer is, and I don't need to see him till 4 months from now, and I don't have to see the hematologist or the lung Doctor! Hallelujah, that's the 2nd time God healed me of what looked like cancer and the signs of having it. God will get the glory for everything, not me; I'm the vessel that can testify for his glory! He is no respecter of persons. Remember in the word of God, the man who was blind and the lord healed him? Well, the disciples asked Jesus, "Who sinned, he or his parents?" The Pharisees brought his parents asking them how he now sees, and they told the Pharisees, "He's of age, ask him" ... well, when things are not well or right, it does not mean we sinned and were stricken with an illness! God is good; He does not put bad things on us.

Know who you are, pray, believe, and ask the lord to show you if you have unforgiveness towards anyone. Communion is very serious, and things need to be made right with the lord before taking it. And I also wanted to say that today, I STILL HAD PEACE!!! HALLELUJAH!!!!!!!

"For thus says the LORD: 'Who created the heavens, Who is God, Who formed the earth and made it, Who has established it, Who did not create it in vain, Who formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD, and there is no other.'" Have you thought about how creative and excellent God is? Music comes from Him. He wrote the Bible by inspiration through chosen men. The Psalms are beyond beautiful! The Hymns were written from the life experiences of people. Times of trouble; times of great sorrow; times of repentance. And times of just magnifying God, because deep within our souls we know He is our only answer. The phrase "deep calls to deep" suggests a profound Spiritual connection and longing in us. It encourages believers to seek a deeper relationship with God, especially in times of trouble. This is why King David wrote so many beautiful Psalms. God said, "David is a man after my own heart." Why? Deep calls to deep. Prophecy: Psalm 42:7: Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterspouts; All Your waves and billows have gone over me. Oh, how beautiful!! Wash us, Lord, with the Living Water! Pour out your Holy Spirit over us!! Make rivers in the dry and thirsty places of our souls! Send streams in the desert! Let me wade in Your Glory!! Oh, let me praise You, Lord, nothing holding back! I don't have the right words to say; no lyrics come to mind, so I will sing Psalms. You wrote those, and the melody is in my heart! This is God's Truth, the Spirit of Truth

Charge Dismissed Against David Daleiden ...

From Page 7 ...the lawfare launched by Kamala Harris is a huge victory for my investigative reporting and for the public's right to know the truth about Planned Parenthood's sale of aborted baby body parts. Now we all must get to work to protect families and infants from the criminal abortion-industrial complex," he said. Defense attorney Steve Cooley, former Los Angeles County District Attorney, sharply criticized the long-running effort. "In my 5 decades as an attorney, 40 years of which were as a prosecutor, I have never seen such a blatant exercise of selective investigation and vindictive prosecution. The California Attorneys General who initiated this case and pursued it for nearly 10 years should be ashamed for weaponizing their office to pursue people who were merely exposing illegality associated with the harvesting and sale of fetal body parts," Cooley said. Daleiden's videos led to a $7.8 million settlement in which two companies admitted illegally selling aborted baby parts obtained from Planned Parenthood abortion centers in Southern California. The reporting also contributed to Planned Parenthood's disqualification from state and federal funding in Texas and helped spark a pending nearly $2 billion federal False Claims Act case against the organization. The resulting exposure accurately painted Planned Parenthood as a money-hungry abortion business whose top executive were caught repeatedly on undercover videos talking about buying Lamborghinis and altering abortion procedures to get aborted baby parts to sell to research firms and universities ranging from the University of Pittsburgh to Colorado State University. The aborted baby parts practice was exposed across the country in states ranging from California to Texas to Colorado. Planned Parenthood officials eventually admitted in depositions that what Daleiden and his team exposed was true. The complete expunge ment now allows Daleiden to focus fully on continued investigative work exposing injustices within the abortion industry.

It simply means we must be wise, aware, and grounded in the Word of God.
Guarding the Heart and Mind
As Christians, we are called to guard what we allow into our hearts and minds. What we watch can:
•Shape our understanding of biblical events
•Influence how we view Jesus and His ministry
•Create impressions that may not be found in Scripture

Over time, this can lead to misinterpretation, especially if what we have seen begins to replace what the Bible actually says. The Holy Spirit is our teacher—not a film, not a script, and not a dramatized version of events.
A Balanced Approach
This is not a call to reject all Christian media. Many believers enjoy and benefit from well-made films about Jesus and the Bible. However, it is a call to:

God's Word is perfect, complete, and inspired. No film or series can improve upon it. As believers, our responsibility is to ensure that our understanding of Scripture comes from the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, not from human interpretation or dramatization. So the next time you sit down to watch a "biblical" film or series, take a moment to ask: Is this leading me deeper into God's Word—or shaping my view apart from it? Because in the end, truth is not found on a screen—it is found in Scripture.

Man on Fire

By Johnny D

In 1996, something tragic happened that would change my life forever. I had already been saved for some time, and God was doing amazing things in my life—but this became the greatest trial of my walk with Him.

It was a Friday morning. I had been praying at the church altar early that day, then spent some time in the Word. Afterward, I went up to the second floor to do some work for my pastor. I had no idea that day would mark a turning point in my life.

Suddenly, a large propane tank in the pastor's office caught fire and exploded. The blast threw me into a small closet. As flames surrounded me, I covered my face with my hands to protect my eyes. Lying there, I saw my whole life flash before me. I had never felt fear like that before.

In that moment, I couldn't even remember a single scripture. Fear gripped me, and the enemy tormented my mind, telling me I was going to die—that I would never see my family or friends again. "Today you die," the voice said. All I could do was cry out, "SAVE ME, JESUS! SAVE ME JESUS!" Over and over again, I called on His name.

Then suddenly, everything shifted. The building shook, and I felt like I might fall between the floors. I remember looking through my fingers and seeing a powerful burst of fire shoot around me, blowing a hole in the wall. The force of it pushed me out of the building.

When my body hit the ground, something supernatural happened. It felt as if my spirit lifted out of my body. For a moment, I thought I was dreaming—that I was still at home in bed. But then I saw my body on the ground, and instantly my spirit returned to it.

As I lay there, I heard the voice of the Lord say, "Johnny, I have given you a second chance to live. Get up and run for your life." He said it again, and this time I responded. I removed my hands from my face and saw the most beautiful blue sky I had ever seen. I stood up and realized I had fallen from the second floor—and I was still alive. As I began to run, I noticed my body was still on fire from the waist down. But as I ran, the flames went out.

A young man found me and helped me until the ambulance arrived. On the way to the hospital, the paramedic kept asking me if I was saved. I told him yes—but he wanted to be sure I truly knew Jesus, not just attended church.

At the hospital, the pain was overwhelming. The worst part was when they had to scrub the burned skin from my body. I cried out to Jesus more intensely than ever before. Even after, the torment continued—nightmares, fear, and the constant reminder of what had happened.

Doctors told me the damage was severe. They weren't sure if I would keep my eyesight, hearing, or even breathe properly again. They said I would likely need skin grafts, especially on my face and hands.

At one point, I cried out to God in frustration, questioning everything. But the Holy Spirit spoke clearly: "The enemy meant this for harm, but God will use it for good. I will get the glory."

Days later, as I struggled physically and emotionally, the Lord spoke to me again. He told me He would restore my skin—no surgeries, no grafts. He said I would have no lasting damage to my eyes, lungs, or ears. The only place He would leave visible burns would be my hands.

He gave me three reasons: First, so I would always remember what He had done for me.

Second, to remind me never to go back to the life He delivered me from.

And third, so I could tell others about the miracle—that if God did it for me, He could do it for them too.

God gave me a second chance at life. And what He did for me, He can do for anyone.
