The Life and Redemption of Frank Palermo — A Trophy of God's Marvelous Grace.

Gunfire. Blood on the floor. A life running full speed in the wrong direction.

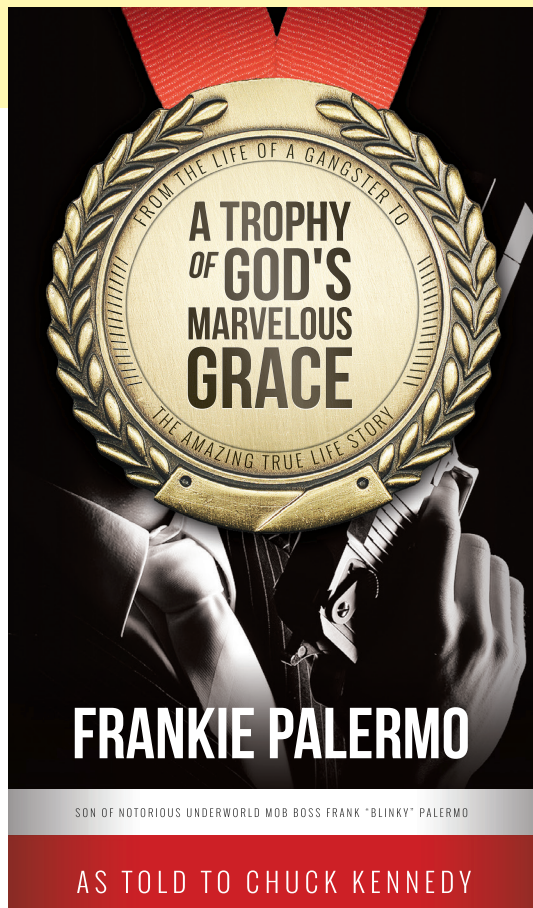

This was not a movie scene—it was real life for Frank Palermo, a man deeply entrenched in crime, living on the edge where every decision could be his last.

He lived a life most would never escape—crime, violence, and constant danger. A life where prison was inevitable and death was always one step away. But in the darkest place imaginable, Frank Palermo had an encounter that changed everything. This is not just a story of survival—it is a story of supernatural redemption.

I had the privilege of knowing Frank and his anointed wife, Judy, personally and serving as their pastor for many years. I didn't just hear his testimony, I watched it. I saw the fire, the boldness, and the unwavering commitment to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ wherever God would send him.

Today, Frank is no longer with us here on earth—but he is in heaven, and his testimony still speaks.

There are testimonies that inspire—but some testify with undeniable power that Jesus

CAUGHT UP IN ORGANIZED CRIME, SENTENCED TO 65 YEARS IN PRISON, MIRACULOUSLY TRANSFORMED BY THE POWER OF JESUS CHRIST!

FRANKIE PALERMO

Frankie grew up in the Palermo Mafia family. He became deeply involved in the inner workings of the mafia, which led him to a life of crime including: forgery, counterfeiting, bookmaking, burglary, interstate stolen securities of stocks and bonds, highjacking, arson, extortion and murder. Frankie was given a 65-year prison term of which he served 15 years at the Federal Penitentiary in Atlanta, GA. He served 12 more years on parole. While in prison in 1971, Frankie gave his life to Jesus Christ and became a new man. Now the Lord uses Frankie and his wife Judy to proclaim God's love at prisons, churches, and conferences across America.

AS TOLD TO CHUCK KENNEDY

Christ still saves, still delivers, and still completely transforms lives. Frank Palermo's life is one of those testimonies—a journey from the grip of organized crime to the call of the Gospel, from prison walls to preaching freedom.

From the world of organized crime to the pulpit of the Gospel, Frank Palermo's life stands as living proof that no one is too far gone for God. What began in violence and darkness ended in redemption and purpose—because of one encounter with Jesus Christ.

There are some testimonies that are powerful. And then there are those that leave no question—only God could do this. The life of Frankie Palermo is one of those stories.

A LIFE OF CRIME AND VIOLENCE

Before Christ, Frank Palermo lived a life most people only hear about in movies.

He was deeply involved in organized crime, surrounded by men whose lives revolved around power, control, and survival. Violence was not uncommon; it was expected. In his own testimony recorded in A Trophy of God's Marvelous Grace, Frank describes moments where life and death decisions happened in seconds. In one incident, a confrontation escalated so quickly that shots were fired, leaving multiple...

The Spirit Of Truth: Back to Basics, Healing

By Rev. Madeline Montez Duffany

Let's get back to the basics of God's Word on Healing!

Psalm 107:20. "He sent His word and healed them and delivered them from their destructions."

Our minds have to be renewed every day, so don't grow weary of hearing your pastor continuously speak and teach on this most important subject. Our Pastor Chuck Kennedy at Faith International Christian Center has helped us all become knowledgeable in faith and healing. He has a Healing School.

There are countless subjects 1 can expound on from behind the pulpit, but people are actually hungry to be saved, healed, and delivered from afflictions that torment them. Prophecy: Just a few days ago, God spoke to me, saying, "Okay, we have discussed praise and worship and your own personal life as a witness, but let's get back to healing. I have come that people would be be healed. I was born to die on the Cross on Calvary, to shed my precious blood for the remission of their sins; to take the stripes on my back and the nails in my hands and feet.

Don't be weary in well-doing. Many will come in my Name, proclaiming all manner of things, but if they are doing anything in my Name and I am not in it, they will eventually burn out in their fleshly efforts. People will look toward them, praise them, encourage them, especially if they have money. When the show is over, I will speak to True Believers in a still small voice. I will fill them with my Holy Spirit because they acknowledge Me, Jesus Christ, not doing things in vain-glory." End Prophecy.

Take the shackles off God! Jesus did not heal the sick in order to coax them to be Christians. It was His nature to heal. He also did not send his Holy Spirit into you so you could whirl about, attracting attention to yourself. It's not you. You are a vessel. The Holy Spirit doesn't need you to manifest Himself. He is the power that does Great Exploits, not you. If his Holy Spirit leaves you, you are like a wet noodle: lifeless, powerless.

It was his love that healed then and that heals now. His love gushed forth like an electric billow. Virtue went out of him, and he healed them all. Luke 6:19

Some modern evangelists have degraded divine healing by making it a teaser to bring those desires of healing under the sway of their ministry. Jesus healed both Saint and Sinner, to the dismay of his apostles, who had not yet grown in the soul-stature of Jesus. They reported to Jesus, "We saw one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbade him, because he did not fellowship with us." Jesus replied, "Forbid him not, for no man can do a miracle in my name..." Continued on Page: 3

This is a season in May for prayer, fasting, and intercession, for seeking the face of the Lord and hearing the voice of God. We are in a season where the Lord is ready to bring forth a new season in the lives of those who are ready to have their borders enlarged and their tents stretched. He tells us in His Word that He is doing a new thing, and before it comes forth, He will show us. We are made new creatures in Christ Jesus when we receive Jesus as our Lord and Savior; all things have become new. No matter what we have done and where we have been, His Word tells us that His mercies are new every morning. There is not a day that goes by that He is not ready to forgive us when we repent and make all things brand new in that situa-...

We are on the verge of a last-day global revival and a Great Awakening. But the great awakening is going to start with a great outpouring of the baptism of fire. A genuine work of repentance in the heart of every man and woman who truly wants to grow closer to the Lord and wants to be part of the end-time army of the Lord and the bride of Christ.

This baptism will wash away every spot, wrinkle, and blemish in the heart of man

The altars of repentance and crying out to the Lord are coming back with a deep Introspective look into oneself is coming back in a depth to the body of Christ, such as never experienced before.

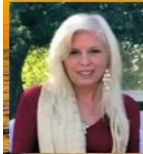

Wet wood on the altars is coming back to the body of Christ and the altars in the churches that are in tune with the Spirit of the Living God!

Signs, wonders, and miracles such as never before will follow the believers who are surrendered and yielded to the Spirit of the living God!

When we are in love with Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit, we will receive a deep fire for souls to be genuinely saved, and that fire of the Holy Spirit within us will come forth as never before.

At this time, then, we will see many come back to the Lord, and then we will see the prodigals come home, even in our own families. Friendly seekers ministries and those that are just looking to build up their own kingdom at the cost of others will be exposed and fall away.

Prepare to meet with God. This book is a collection of Inspirations, Visions and Revelations given to me by Holy Spirit a number of years ago, that will take you deep into the heart of God. As you take this journey with me, you will hear Holy Spirit ministering to you. You should feel the presence of God wooing you and touching your heart, filling your life with awesome depths that you have never known before. This is the bridegroom calling unto His bride. Allow Holy Spirit to minister to you through these pages and draw you deep into the depths of Jesus Christ. Back to Basics, Healing

Jesus met a paralytic man at the pool of Bethesda. This man did not ask for healing. Jesus went to him and said, "Wilt thou be made whole?" Jesus asked for the privilege of healing the sufferer. He healed him. His love compelled it.

The next day, Jesus met the healed man in the temple and said, "Behold, thou art made whole; sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee." John 5:1-14

Jesus did not force the man into church as a possibility for his healing period. He did not ask for money. He did not rip off amulets from the man's neck or even discuss his manner of dress.

Jesus didn't want anything. The outburst of his love for the world bursts all bounds. He healed multitudes. You might say, yes, but that was Jesus. No apostle had such an experience.

But wait! When Peter went down the street as the evening shadows fell, his shadow reached across the street. They brought all the sick, that his shadow might overshadow them. Acts 5:16

Healing was the evidence of God's forgiveness – heaven's testimony that their sins were remembered no more. Jesus still performs creative miracles today. He causes the deaf to hear, the lame to walk, the dumb to speak, and the depressed to be healed.

Healing is not always immediate. Concerning the ten lepers, "as they went, they were cleansed."

The healing process became evident later. Healing is, at times, by degree, based on two conditions. First, the degree of healing virtue administered.

Second, the degree of faith that gives action and power to the virtue administered. The word preached did not profit them without being mixed with faith. Hebrews 4:2
Sometimes the Spirit of God is ministered to the sick person to a degree that he is manifestly supercharged with the Spirit. It's like a battery being charged with an electric force, yet no real and final healing takes place until a flash of divine power is observed. An explosion takes place in the sick person, and the disease is destroyed.

There is a scientific secret of healing. My husband understands this as an electrical engineer. Do you understand this?

Here's an example. A diseased woman followed Jesus in a crowd. She knew the law of the Spirit and had observed that it flowed from the person of Jesus and healed the sick. She was convinced that this must also be present in his clothing. So, she reasoned, if I could but touch the hem of his garment, I would be made whole. She did so, and she was healed. Matthew 9:20

Jesus was aware of it. He said, "Someone has touched me, for I perceive that virtue has gone out of me." Jesus was aware of the outflow. Mark 5:25

The woman was aware of

From Resistance to Redemption: A Life Transformed by Christ

The Testimony of Clifford Townsley – Bartow, Florida
 - By He's Alive News Staff

Bro. Clifford Townsley

The2forChrist: Bro. Clifford & Sis Charlene Townsley

Clifford Townsley openly shares a part of his early life not to glorify the past, but to magnify the Resurrection power of Jesus Christ. As a preteen, Clifford attended the Kentucky School for the Blind in Louisville, Kentucky. At the time, attending Sunday church services was required for on-campus students. Like many young people, Clifford and some of his peers began to resist authority. What started as skipping services eventually turned into a determined stand against being required to attend church at all. Clifford and a small group of students requested permission not to attend. When the school allowed exemptions with parental consent, more students followed their lead. Over time, fewer and fewer attended, and within a few years, the church buses that once came regularly to the campus stopped altogether. Looking back, Clifford does not celebrate those actions—but he recognizes them as part of a life that had not yet encountered the saving grace of Jesus Christ. Years later, after giving his life to the Lord and being filled with the Holy Spirit, the memory resurfaced. For a moment, it brought conviction—but more importantly, it became a powerful reminder of God's mercy. Clifford quickly turned to the Lord, only to be met with the assurance of complete forgiveness. What the enemy once tried to use as condemnation, God used as confirmation: the past is truly washed away. Today, Clifford Townsley is a completely different man. Now a faithful member of Faith International Christian Center, he boldly uses his voice not to resist the things of God, but to proclaim them. Alongside his wife, Charlene, the duo "Two for Christ" ministers in song, bringing powerful praise.....

Israel - Interesting World's History

By Dr. Samuel Massey,
India | samueljohnmiracle@gmail.com

I heard very interesting events that happened for Israel in World History, which are as follows: - The First World War happened as a result of the First World War. Which countries' boundaries changed?

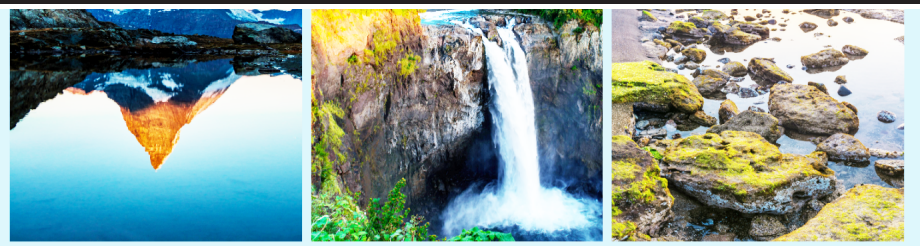

If you study, nothing happened, but the Ottoman Empire gave up the land of Israel, i.e., the Turkish people gave up the land of Israel, and Jewish people around the world started to feel that we would rather go back to our country. It is very interesting that the whole world went through turmoil. The only significant visible result was the desire to form a nation.

Then the 2nd world war happened. What happened? Did Germany's boundaries change? Did France change its boundaries? Did the UK's border change? Did Japan expand or shrink? Did China become bigger or smaller? Actually, the Second World War did not change the geography of any country, except that a new country was born, and its name is Israel, and then people began to say, "Hey, this is the Bible prophecy coming to fulfillment. God said something, and it is really happening, and the Islamic nations around the territory of Israel made it very clear that they will wipe them out. If Hitler killed so many people over so many years, we will kill them in 1 day, we will throw their dead bodies in the Mediterranean Sea. We will make sure that they are wiped off. President Nasser of Egypt, who made that statement, and then Iran, and these nations have a big Army power. In the book of Ezekiel, it says, "When I call My Children back together and bring them to the land of their ancestors." We will say we will wipe. But I, your God, will be with you and prosper you, and I will bring Success to you. Funny thing, when President Nasser said to wipe Israel. The Islamic Nations Army was 11 to 1 Israeli Citizens; Israeli citizens were simply outnumbered, no comparison. The result of the 6-day war was that Israel gained more territory and was victorious. So, when God decides to flourish you, you will flourish, survive, and thrive. Not because you deserve it, not because you always did right, not because you have done no wrong. But because you are committed to the Glory of God, the Greater One.

An adventure into the Supernatural

This is a book with a message. A walk into the supernatural. The story shows how some families have trails of chronic sickness, depression anger, habits of booze and drugs, suicide attempts and tiredness constantly. These are not brought on necessarily by emotions. There is something sinister and evil in the background, it's a battle between angels who fight evil spirits with bolts of lightning and demons fighting for the souls of men. The story follows four families three generations to see how demons are passed from one to another. It reads like a movie.

A New Wave of Revival: Young Hearts Turning to Jesus Across America

Heaven Is Moving Across America—And a Generation Is Answering the Call

By He's Alive News Staff

Across the United States, something powerful is stirring—especially among the younger generation. What many have prayed for over the years is now unfolding before our eyes: a fresh wave of revival, marked by bold faith, public declarations, and a deep hunger for God's presence.

One recent example comes from the shores of California.

According to CBN News reporting, hundreds of believers gathered on May 2nd at Pirate's Cove in Corona Del Mar for a large-scale baptism event known as Baptize California. The beach—historically known as a site of the Jesus Movement baptisms of the early 1970s—once again became a place where lives were publicly surrendered to Jesus Christ.

Thousands attended, with more than 30 churches participating. Over 650 individuals had pre-registered for baptism, with expectations that the total would surpass 1,000. What took place that day was more than a gathering—it was a visible sign that revival is not only possible, but already underway.

Revival That Is Spreading

What began as a regional movement is now expanding nationwide and even globally. Organizers are pointing toward upcoming efforts such as Baptize America and Baptize the World, with participation growing across churches and nations.

But California is not alone. Across the country, especially on college campuses, similar reports are emerging. In February 2026, a revival gathering at the University of Central Florida reportedly drew more than 5,000 students, with hundreds responding in baptism and renewed commitment to Christ.

This follows the well-documented Asbury Revival 2023, where a 16-day continuous prayer and worship service at Asbury University in Kentucky drew thousands of young people from across the nation, many of whom encountered God in a deeply personal way.

Movements like Unite-US and other campus-led gatherings continue to spread, often organized and led by young believers themselves—not out of obligation, but out of genuine spiritual hunger.

► What the Data Is Showing

Beyond individual testimonies, researchers are also taking notice. According to findings reported by organizations such as Barna Group, there has been a measurable increase in spiritual interest among Gen Z and Millennials. A 2025 study indicated a rise in commitment to Jesus and an increase in church attendance frequency among younger generations.

There are also reports of a noticeable rise in the number of young men returning to church—something that had been in decline for years. At the same time, research from Pew Research Center offers a broader perspective, noting that while certain pockets of revival are evident, nationwide statistics do not yet show a uniform increase across all demographics. This contrast highlights an important truth:

Revival is not always first seen in statistics—it is first seen in hearts.

A Generation Seeking Something Real

Observers across ministry and research circles agree on one key theme: young people today are not looking for empty religion. They are searching for authenticity.

They are drawn to environments where they can experience God personally—not just hear about Him. Many of these revival gatherings are marked by extended worship, spontaneous prayer, and a strong emphasis on surrender to Jesus Christ rather than structured tradition.

Several factors appear to be contributing to this movement:

- Post-pandemic reflection, where isolation led many to reevaluate life's meaning
- Cultural uncertainty, driving a search for truth and stability
- A hunger for purpose, beyond what the world can offer

And in that search, many are finding Jesus by the drawing of the Father through the Holy Spirit to Jesus.

Rom 2:4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

More Than a Moment
Baptism has become one of the defining expressions of this revival—not as a ritual, but as a declaration.

It is a public stand. A line drawn in the sand. A testimony that a life has been changed.

From the beaches of California to college campuses across America, young people are boldly declaring: "Jesus Christ is Lord."

A Call to the Church
This moment carries both excitement and responsibility.

As revival stirs among the younger generation, the Church must be ready to disciple, teach the truth, and provide a firm foundation in God's Word.

A revival that lasts is a revival that is grounded.

Heaven Is Moving—Will We Respond?

Despite what world events many times suggest, there is a generation rising—not away from God, but toward Him.

Not in rebellion—but in surrender. Not in confusion—but in clarity.

And what we are seeing now may only be the beginning.

Have You Received Jesus?

No matter your past or where you are today—God is calling you.

If you are ready to begin a new life with Him, pray:

"Lord Jesus, I believe You are the Son of God. I believe You died for my sins and rose again. Forgive me, come into my heart, and be my Lord and Savior. Thank You for saving me. In Jesus Name, Amen."

If you prayed this, welcome to the family of God! Please reach out to us for assistance in your new life.

“I Haven’t Coughed Since” — Healing Testimony at Madera Revival Meetings

God’s healing power on display during recent services with Evangelist Joan Pearce

A powerful testimony of God’s healing presence emerged during recent revival meetings at Believers Church of Madera, pastored by John Pursell and Karen Pursell, where Evangelist Joan Pearce ministered on May 2nd and 3rd.

One attendee shared this encouraging testimony of what the Lord did during the service:

A Simple Act of Faith—A Powerful Result
Evangelist Joan Pearce began by sharing what took place:

“Hey everybody, I tell you what—a mighty God we serve. Jesus died on the cross of Calvary, and by His stripes we are healed, saved, delivered, and set free.

My sister came to the meeting today. She had been at the conference, and she was coughing and hacking on and off. So I just went up and started praying for her. I put my hand right under her throat...”
At that point, the woman who was prayed for confirmed the healing:

“I haven’t been coughing since then. I had been coughing since yesterday, and I don’t feel that congestion anymore. I’m walking in my healing. Amen. Hallelujah!”

Faith Released—Healing Received

What makes this testimony so powerful is its simplicity.

There was no long process—just faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ and a willingness to act on it. As hands were laid on her in prayer, healing power was released, and the result was immediate. The testimony continued with an encouragement to all who would hear it: “You can be healed too.”

The closing words were simple, yet full of faith: “Just receive it. Receive it. Believe it. God bless you.”

God Is Still Healing Today
This testimony is a reminder that Jesus Christ is still the same yesterday, today, and forever.

What He has done, He continues to do.

In these meetings at Believers Church of Madera, many are not just hearing about God—they are experiencing Him. Healing. Restoration. Renewal.

And as faith rises, lives are being touched.

Heb 13:8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

The Quest for Normal Christianity

By Pastor Don Sturiano

Pastor Don Sturiano

As a young youth pastor in the mid-80's, while reading the scriptures, I came across a prayer prayed by the Disciples. It is found in the book of Acts 4:29-31: "Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants that with all boldness they may speak Your word, by stretching out Your hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of Your Holy Servant Jesus." And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

It is important to point out that this prayer was prayed after receiving great threats from the religious leaders of the day. They were threatened for preaching the name of Jesus that resulted in the healing of a man who had been crippled from birth. (See Acts Chapter 3) I am profoundly impressed by the fact that they prayed for more of what got them in trouble in the first place. They were not going to allow the fear of man to keep them from their Kingdom mandate. This passage has been branded in my heart, and I have continued to pray it for nearly 40 years. I am thankful I have experienced countless miracles with increased frequency in our church meetings, out in the community, both wrought through the lives of many of our members as well as mine.

Jesus is the example of normal Christianity. Jesus is not just a part of my life, He is my life, and I want to be like HIM, I want to be a normal Christian; Don't you?

The Bible says when He walked this earth He preached the Gospel of the Kingdom, healed the sick, the blind, the deaf, delivered the tormented, and commanded demons to flee. He did it with love and compassion for those who were afflicted and always gave the Father the Glory. He told us that we would be able to do what He did and even greater; See Matthew 4:23 and John 14:12.

Jesus didn't say, "Come y'all," rather, "Go Ye!" He wants us to go out of our church meetings filled with the fire of the Holy Spirit to proclaim and demonstrate the greater reality of His Kingdom on the earth. This is why He taught us to pray Your Kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Those who think otherwise need to repent. From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Matthew 4:17. The word repent here means to change the way you think.

In Romans 12:2, God calls us to renew our minds that we might prove His good, acceptable, and perfect will. In large part, it is His will for you to walk in power, representing His Divine nature.

To be a Christian and not be in hot pursuit to walk in His love, power, and authority, is to live an abnormal Christian life.

Let's get out there and give'm Heaven!

You Have A Part in This Last-Day Global Revival and Great Awakening

From Page 3 ...tion and in our lives. He is always ready to do above and beyond that which we say, think, or pray, because His power is working powerfully on our behalf. His ways, thoughts, and purposes are way above ours, and He is always ready to turn every bad and or negative situation for our ultimate good, when we repent, yield, and surrender our lives on His holy altar. I am living proof of that. Again, His mercies are new every morning for us. He is always ready to fill us with the knowledge of His will, with His insight and understanding, according to His Word. When we seek His face, get into His Word, and surrender to all He has for us. Not our will but His will, for our lives. As we allow the eyes of our hearts to be enlightened to know the hope of our calling in Christ Jesus, in His timing, those plans He has stored up for us will be revealed to us, step by step, season by season. Day by day, as we are obedient to each step of His revealed calling for our lives in that particular season and timing. Each of us has a place and a purpose in God's plan for our lives, and we are obedient to hear and obey the voice of the Lord; we will fulfill all God has for us. By the power of His Holy Spirit within us, He will accomplish all His plans and purposes He had planned for our lives, even before we were ever born. The Word tells us to forget all that lies behind and reach up for the mark of the high calling of Christ Jesus for our lives. Lay the past on the altar of God. Allow Him to make all things brand new and use all that you have been through in the past, for His holy purposes to bring healing and deliverance to many other lives, all for His holy glory.

I am so glad for my faith foundation. When we build our faith and our lives on the Word of God, we will have a strong foundation that will withstand any storm that comes our way. When we know who we are in Christ Jesus, and who He is in us, and through us, no weapon formed against us will prosper. Before we are born again, we receive the world around us and through us by our 5 senses, then we assimilate it through our minds and our bodies and act accordingly. BUT WHEN WE ARE BORN AGAIN, up is down and down is up! It is our spirit man now that should be in control, by the Holy Spirit who lives within us. Our spirit man now should come to the forefront, and all our other parts should come into subjection to the living God who lives within our spirit. Our minds and our bodies are now to be in subjection to the Spirit of the Lord who lives within our spirit man. It is our spirit man that is to rule and make all decisions by the Spirit of the Lord who lives within us, and the Power of the Word of God in our hearts. Now it is our 5 spiritual senses that are to come alive and be heightened even more than our natural senses. We are spirit, soul, and body, and now, by the Holy Spirit who lives within us, we allow our spirit man to rise and take control over our minds and body, as we renew our minds with the Word of the living God. Now out of our bellies shall flow rivers of living water.

He has a plan of blessings for you and through...

FROM THE MOB TO THE MASTER

Judy & Frank Palermo

This was the world he lived in, armed, alert, and always ready.

He moved through a network of criminals and mob connections and into high-risk situations. After a series of incidents, he found himself on the run, relying on underworld contacts to move him from city to city, knowing full well that both law enforcement and the mob could bring his life to an end.

At one point, even a meeting with mob leadership left his life hanging in the balance—where one wrong word could have been his last.

This was not just a bad path.

This was a dead-end road.

ARRESTED — AND FACE TO FACE WITH REALITY

Eventually, the life caught up with him.

Frank was arrested and faced the consequences of his choices. What once seemed like control quickly turned into confinement. Prison became his reality. And like many who enter those walls, he was forced to face something he had long avoided—himself.

No more running.

No more hiding.

Just the weight of a life lived apart from God.

A SUPERNATURAL ENCOUNTER WITH JESUS

But prison was not the end of Frank's story.

It was the turning point.

While incarcerated, Frank had a powerful and life-altering encounter with Jesus Christ—an experience so real, so undeniable, that it completely changed the direction of his life. This was not religion.

This was not a temporary decision.

This was a divine confrontation with truth.

From that moment forward, Frank knew his life would never be the same.

REVIVAL BEHIND PRISON WALLS

What happened next is nothing short of remarkable.

Instead of sinking deeper into despair, Frank began to rise in faith.

He started sharing what had happened to him.

He began preaching the Gospel, right there inside the prison.

Men who knew his past listened.

Men who lived the same life paid attention.

Because they knew—this change was real.

The same boldness that once led him into crime was now being used to proclaim Jesus Christ. Where there had once been fear and intimidation, there was now conviction and truth.

And God began to move.

A MIRACULOUS RELEASE

Then came what many would call impossible.

After everything—his past, his record, the life he had lived—Frank experienced what can only be described as a miraculous release.

God made a way where there seemed to be no way, after 14 years behind bars. What should have held him bound no longer had power over him.

And when he walked out of prison, he didn't go back to his old life. He stepped fully into his new one.

FROM PRISONER TO PREACHER

Frank didn't waste a moment.

He pursued God with everything he had.

He went to Bible college.

He studied the Word.

He surrendered completely to the call of God on his life.

And soon, the man who once lived for the world was now traveling, preaching, and sharing the Gospel across the country.

His testimony opened doors that few others could walk through, especially into prisons and places where hardened hearts needed to hear the truth.

Because when Frank spoke, people knew:

He had lived it.

And he had been changed.

A TROPHY OF GOD'S MARVELOUS GRACE

His life is best described by the very title of his testimony:

"A Trophy of God's Marvelous Grace."

Not because he was perfect.

But because he was redeemed.

God took a life that was headed for destruction and turned it into a testimony that continues to reach people today.

HIS STORY STILL SPEAKS

Today, Frank Palermo is in heaven.

But his testimony lives on. It speaks to the addict.

To the prisoner.

To the one who feels too far gone.

And it declares one unshakable truth:

No one is beyond the reach of Jesus Christ.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

As his pastor and friend of many years, I count it an an honor to have walked alongside Frank Palermo. I saw his faith.

I saw his growth.

I saw his love for Jesus.

And I saw a man who never lost sight of the grace that saved him.

The Ministry Continues

Though Frank Palermo has gone home to be with the Lord, his ministry did not end—it continues.

His beloved wife, Judy, who faithfully stood by his side throughout the years, is carrying on the call of evangelism. Many remember her not only as a supportive partner but also as a powerful minister in her own right—sharing the pulpit, preaching, singing, and ministering through music on her piano.

Together, they were a team.

Today, she continues that same mission.

With the same heart, the same message, and the same passion for souls, Judy is still proclaiming the Gospel and ministering wherever God opens the door.

For those interested in scheduling evangelistic meetings or contacting the ministry, she can be reached at:

Noboundariesministries143@gmail.com

The voice may sound a little different—but the message remains the same: Jesus still saves.

Back to Basics, Healing

From Page 3 ... the reception. The healing was a fact. Here, faith and the power of God were apparent. It was a veritable chemical reaction. Healing always is.

People are NOT healed because they do not see the possibilities of divine healing and are not aware of its scientific aspects. The grace and love of God in the soul opens the nature of God. The spirit of God resounds as the sunlight and banishes the darkness.

The Spirit of God emanating from Paul transformed handkerchiefs into 'storage batteries' of Holy Spirit power. When they were laid on the sick, they 'supercharged' the body and healing was the result. Acts 19: 2

The spirit of God is a tangible substance, heavenly material. It can be stored in a handkerchief. I believe that scientists today who understand chemicals in the body and mind continuously develop more and more chemicals to try to heal minds and bodies. Like many things, this is a perversion, a distortion of what God intended. Chemicals don't heal. Only Jesus can heal. Medicines help the chemical reaction in our bodies, but they don't heal us. Let's take a person with schizophrenia. The chemicals keep the brain drugged down for a while until they stop working. Then new drugs are tried.

Jesus healed the man who lived near the tombs, near the dead. There were no chemicals available then. They tried binding him....

SCOTUS Rules 8-1 Talk Therapy Bans Violate First Amendment

By Liberty Counsel

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Today, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled 8-1 in Chiles v. Salazar that Colorado’s 2019 counseling ban on talk therapy for minors violates the First Amendment and the free speech of licensed counselors. Colorado’s law banned licensed counselors from expressing viewpoints aimed at helping minors change any unwanted same-sex attractions, behaviors, or gender confusion. The majority opinion found the law “censors speech based on viewpoint,” and is “unconstitutional” under the “First Amendment’s jealous protections for the individual’s right to think and speak freely.”

Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson was the stand-alone dissent stating counseling only “incidentally” involves speech and that the practice of medicine is “subordinate to the police power of the States.”

However, Justice Neil Gorsuch authored the majority opinion stating the majority rejected the argument that licensed counseling incidentally involves speech and reject ed it is merely “professional conduct” deserving of diminished protection. Rather, Justice Gorsuch explained that since Kaley Chiles’ counseling practice consisted entirely of the spoken word—without any physical interventions or medication—Colorado’s law regulated speech rather than conduct. The ruling reaffirms that licensed professionals (doctors, counselors, etc.) do not lose their free speech protections when they get a state license.

“The spoken word is perhaps the quintessential form of protected speech,” wrote Justice Gorsuch. “And that is exactly the kind of expression in which Ms. Chiles seeks to engage. As a talk therapist, all Ms. Chiles does is speak with clients; she does not prescribe medication, use medical devices, or employ any physical methods.”

Chiles’ speech is not conduct just because it can also be described as a “treatment” or a “therapeutic modality,” wrote Justice Gorsuch. “The First Amendment is no word game,” and free speech cannot be “renamed away or nullified by ‘mere labels,’” he stated.

Justice Gorsuch noted that some of Chiles’ clients seek to align their attractions and behaviors in harmony with their bodies, but Colorado prevented those conversations from ever taking place because it is only in favor of expressing support for a child’s “gender transition.” Allowing the law to stand would have created a “cavernous ‘First Amendment Free Zone’” stated Justice Gorsuch. The American people “lose” when the government transforms an opinion into forced conformity, reads the ruling.

Justice Gorsuch concluded that “any law that suppresses speech based on viewpoint represents an ‘egregious’ assault” on the inalienable right of free speech and the free marketplace of ideas.

Liberty Counsel filed two amicus briefs to the High Court in this case, one arguing that the Court should take the case, and one on the legal merits of the case after the Court accepted the case for review. Liberty Counsel argued that Colorado’s law relies heavily on ideology instead of sound science, and that it should not stand because the First Amendment does not allow any state to dictate which counseling viewpoints may be discussed between a counselor and their client. Liberty Counsel began this type of litigation with Pickup v. Brown against California in 2012, the first state to pass a law banning change counsel. Liberty Counsel won the first cases in the nation striking down these counseling bans in Florida. In both Otto v. City of Boca Raton and Vazzo v. City of Tampa, the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals struck down city ordinances that prohibited licensed counselors from providing voluntary talk therapy to minors seeking help to eliminate unwanted same-sex attractions or gender confusion because they were unconstitutional under the First Amendment. These cases set up the conflict with the Colorado case that provided the opportunity for the Supreme Court to take up the matter. Liberty Counsel Founder and Chairman Mat Staver said, “The U.S. Supreme Court’s resounding decision in Chiles v. Salazar is a major victory for the integrity of the counseling profession. This ruling ensures the government cannot strip the First Amendment away from licensed counselors and dictate a state-mandated ideology between counselor and client. Talk therapy is speech, and the government has no authority to restrict that speech to just one viewpoint. Counseling bans can now be struck down nationwide so that people can get the counseling they need.”

From Page:8 ... you for your life, in this last day global revival and a Great Awakening

The Word of the Lord today is TRANSPARENT; David said, 'Prove me, oh Lord, and test my heart and my mind, see if there be any wicked way in me.' In Jerm. The Lord said, "I the Lord search the mind, I try the heart, even to give to every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doing."

DEEP IS CALLING UNTO DEEP.. David said, "With my whole heart have I sought You." In this season, God is calling us to go into deeper waters, spiritually.

Jesus said in Mat. "Blessed are the PURE IN HEART for they shall see God."

"Who may go up to the mountain of the Lord, but he who has clean hands and a PURE HEART."

Back to Basics, Healing

From Page:9 ...with ropes. The evil, unnatural strength broke the bonds. Jesus stepped on shore, and all those demons begged for mercy. They had to flee. The sick and insane were healed by Paul's handkerchiefs. The Holy Spirit's power sent electric charges through the people. We have faith that when we plug in our cell phones, the electric charge from the wall socket will charge our phones' batteries. The Holy Spirit will remind us, "Power down, recharge battery. Go to my word. You are getting weak. Your light is dimming." The scientific mind wants to ask, how? Why? It's not necessary to understand everything. Doctors are still baffled by miraculous healings. They must attribute it to God's healing. There's no other explanation. God is not confined to methods, your methods.

Heaven bows to the soul with faith anywhere and under any circumstances. "If two of you agree on earth as touching anything, they shall ask, it shall be done for them. Ask, and you shall receive," said Jesus. Matthew 18:19, 7:7-8. And he commanded us to pray for the sick that they may be healed. James 5:14-16. Where? Anywhere! I have always known that our spirit connects to His Holy Spirit when we are born again. I have used this and taught this. There is an invisible line, like an electric conduit, a power transmitter that connects our spirit to Jesus. It's not hard to understand. It's faith and believing in him. Pastor Chuck Kennedy gave me John G. Lake's book, and I quoted some of his writing in this letter.

"You Have to Believe It to Receive It" — My Healing Testimony By Melissa Young

In 2022, I was diagnosed with invasive HER2-positive breast cancer, a very aggressive form of cancer. They recommended the standard course of treatment—chemotherapy, surgery, and radiation—I followed through with all they advised. But after ward, I was told there was still more treatments recommended. I felt like I was simply following a protocol. But then A dear friend reached out to me and invited me to attend a church service where the elders anointed me with oil and prayed over me. The Moment Everything Changed As I stood there being prayed for, the pastor spoke words that went straight into my spirit: "You have to believe it to receive it." At that very moment, I chose to believe. I know, without a doubt, that I was healed that night.

Standing on God's Word I continue to stand on the promise God gave me. When doubt tries to creep into my mind, I rebuke it. I refuse to give place to fear, worry, or anxiety. I hold on to what God said in His Word. I believe it. I received it. And I walk in it! A Life of Faith and Victory This journey has taught me that faith is not just something we talk about, it's something we live. It's a choice to trust God even when circumstances say otherwise. It's standing firm when doubt tries to speak louder. And it's knowing that God is faithful to His promises. My Declaration "Doubt, worry, and anxiety are not from God—they are from Satan. I stand on the promises of God, and I walk in my healing." All Glory to God I give all the glory to Jesus Christ, my healer and my Savior. Hallelujah!—and thank You, Jesus!

From Resistance to Redemption:
A Life Transformed
by Christ

From Page 4 ...and worship that touch hearts and draw people closer to the Lord. Where there was once resistance, there is now passion. Where there was once defiance, there is now boldness for Christ. Clifford himself reflects on the change with gratitude. The same boldness he once used in the wrong direction has been redeemed and redirected for the glory of God. And that is the beauty of the Gospel. God does not discard a life—He transforms it. He takes what was once misdirected and gives it new purpose. Clifford's testimony is not about what went wrong in his youth—it is about what went right when he encountered Jesus. Today, he stands as a powerful witness to this truth: Jesus Christ changes lives completely. Call to Prayer Heavenly Father, We thank You for the power of Your redeeming love. Thank You that no past is too far gone, no mistake too great, and no life beyond Your reach. Just as You transformed Clifford's life, we know You are still changing hearts today. Lord, we lift up every reader who may be carrying regret, guilt, or memories of the past. Let them see clearly that through Jesus Christ, they are forgiven, washed clean, and made new. Strengthen them to walk boldly in their new identity, no longer looking back, but pressing forward in faith. Father, take every area of resistance, every place where we once went our own way, and turn it into a testimony for Your glory.

Fill us with Your Holy Spirit, that we may use our voices, our gifts, and our lives to proclaim the Gospel with boldness and love. And Lord, we pray for those who have not yet come to know You. Draw them by Your Spirit. Open their hearts to receive Jesus as Lord and Savior, that they too may experience the life-changing power of Your grace. We give You all the praise, honor, and glory. “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God...” 1 John 4:1

In recent months, conversations surrounding UFOs—now commonly referred to as UAPs (Unidentified Aerial Phenomena)—have exploded across media outlets, government discussions, podcasts, and even church circles.

With promises of declassified files, congressional hearings, and growing public fascination, many believers are asking an important question:

What is really going on?

And perhaps more importantly:

How should the Church respond?

SECRET MEETINGS AND GROWING SPECULATION

Recent reports have stirred controversy after several ministers claimed they attended or were connected to private meetings discussing possible future government disclosures regarding UFO phenomena.

According to reporting by The Christian Post, Pastor Larry Ragland later clarified and apologized after comments regarding an alleged government-related UFO briefing involving pastors created widespread public discussion. The article also references comments surrounding Congressman Eric Burlison and discussions about possible future “disclosure” narratives.

In addition, Minister Perry Stone publicly discussed reports of invitation-only pastoral meetings involving conversations about UFO disclosure and end-times implications. His discussion has fueled significant interest among Christians attempting to understand these developments through a biblical lens.

THE POSITION OF THIS PUBLICATION

It is the view of He’s Alive

News that the growing fascination with “aliens” and extraterrestrial life is not evidence of intelligent life from distant planets, but rather part of a broader spiritual deception unfolding in the last days.

We do not believe in biological alien civilizations. However, we absolutely affirm what Scripture clearly teaches: there is a very real spiritual realm containing both holy angels and fallen demonic spirits.

The Bible speaks repeatedly of:

- angels,
- Fallen angels,
- seducing spirits,
- principalities,
- powers,
- and spiritual wickedness in high places.

What many today are calling “alien encounters” bears striking similarities to what previous generations identified as familiar spirits and demonic manifestations.

A PREPARATION FOR DECEPTION?

Many Christians have expressed concern that increasing government discussion surrounding UFOs could eventually be used to shape public opinion regarding supernatural events.

Some prophecy teachers have long speculated that if the catching away of believers—commonly called the rapture—were to occur, the disappearance of millions of Christians could be explained away through narratives involving extraterrestrials or interdimensional beings. Whether or not such a scenario unfolds exactly that way, one thing is certain:

The world will always attempt to explain away the supernatural without acknowledging God.

Scripture warns clearly that deception will increase in the last days.

“For Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.” — 2 Corinthians 11:14

DISCERNMENT IS ESS-

ENTIAL

This publication believes the Church must exercise spiritual discernment and not be swept away by fear, fascination, or government narratives.

History has shown that governments and media systems can influence public perception through repeated messaging and psychological conditioning. For that reason, believers must never place culture above Scripture.

The Church must:

- test every spirit,
- examine every claim,
- and remain grounded in the Word of God.

No amount of social pressure, scientific speculation, or political influence should move believers away from biblical truth.

DO NOT ENTERTAIN THESE SPIRITS

It is the opinion of this publisher that supposed alien manifestations and encounters should never be entertained, pursued, or embraced.

They should be rebuked. The Church must remember:

Not every supernatural manifestation is from God. The enemy’s goal has always been deception.

And in these last days, discernment is more important than ever.

JESUS CHRIST IS LORD

In a world increasingly obsessed with the unknown, believers must remain focused on what is already known and revealed through Scripture.

There is:

- one Creator,
- one Savior,
- and one Lord.

His name is Jesus Christ. No government disclosure, no supposed extraterrestrial narrative, and no spiritual deception will ever change that eternal truth.

The Church must not bow to fear.

The Church must not bow to culture.

And the Church must never bow to false gods.

Jesus is Lord. Call to Prayer

Heavenly Father, Give Your people discernment in these last days. Help us to stand firmly on Your Word and not be moved by deception, fear, or confusion.

Strengthen the Church to recognize truth from error and to boldly proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord above all.

Guard our hearts and minds and help us walk in wisdom, faith, and spiritual understanding.

In Jesus’ mighty name, Amen.
